cause I know how he is about coaching." While Grgurich is back for now, he said he will consult with his doctor daily on his status. "I asked them if I could try it," Grgurich said. "I thought it was necessary at this time to try it. You know, I might be wrong. We'll see what happens." The Runnin' Rebels continue their season tonight at 7:35 against Pacific at the Thomas and Mack Center.

Pacific enters the game with a 9-6 record, 4-3 in Big West play. The Tigers are led by sophomore guards Adam Jacobsen and T.J. Walker. Jacobsen averaged 8.9 points-per-game last year, while Walker averaged 7.3 ppg.

Last year Pacific tied the Rebels for fifth in the Big West with a 10-8 record. The Tigers were 17-14 overall.

The Rebels split with the Tigers last year as each team won on its home floor.

UNLY lost at Pacific as Tiger players Michael Jackson and Charles Terrell each scored 25

Kebu Stewart led the way for the Rebels with a career high 36 points, plus 12 rebounds. Damian Smith added 14 points.

The Rebels nipped the Tigers, 76-75, at the T&M on March 6 as Savoy tipped in an offensive rebound with seconds left to give
