"PAY ATTENTION TO MY WISDOM" AFRO-AMERICAN HISTORY FROM A GREEK PERSPECTIVE

SPONSORED BY THE ETA CHI CHAPTER OF DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC.

Pay attention to my wisdom, for I have walked in your darkest path
Have you heard my screams?

because of them you are now living hopefully on my behalf My creation is magnificent, my existence stable so my sister, my bother pay attention to my wisdom for I am so, so, able

Oh pay attention to my wisdom its voice needs to be heard sometimes when I whisper its only temporary just to get me over for I know the real gift is not the volume but in the word

Pay attention, attention, attention to my wisdom because I lived a great life

You need me in time when you wern't valued

I still need you, in me breathe life

You've cradled in my bosom, sat on my lap

when fighting for equal rights you marched in my name, held up my spirit

You've let me in your heart you love me and I love you

You see we needed each other aren't you happy God gave us a will to fight

So Pay Attention to my Wisdom for I have marked the way

Go ahead walk in my footsteps please allow me too lead the way
