"PAY ATTENTION TO MY WISDOM"
AFRO-AMERICAN HISTORY FROM A GREEK PERSPECTIVE
SPONSORED BY THE ETA CHI CHAPTER OF DELTA SIGMA THETA SORORITY, INC.

Pay attention to my wisdom, for I have walked in your darkest path
Have you heard my screams?
because of them you are now living hopefully on my behalf My creation is magnificent, my existence stable so my sister, my brother pay attention to my wisdom for I am so, so, able Oh pay attention to my wisdom its voice needs to be heard sometimes when I whisper its only temporary just to get me over for I know the real gift is not the volume but in the word Pay attention, attention, attention to my wisdom because I lived a great life
You needed me in time when you weren't valued
I still need you, in me breathe life You've cradled in my bosom, sat on my lap when fighting for equal rights you marched in my name, held up my spirit You've let me in your heart you love me and I love you
You see we needed each other aren't you happy God gave us a will to fight
So Pay Attention to my Wisdom for I have marked the way Go ahead walk in my footsteps please allow me to lead the way
