

A Sweeping Weekend for Lady Rebel Stringers

BY MICHAEL MELISSA
STAFF REPORTER

The Lady Rebel tennis team completed its nine-match home-stand by sweeping another weekend set and going 8-1 through the stretch.

With the clean sweep, the 39th ranked Lady Rebels lifted their season record to 10-2 overall.

"We played some real tough games," coach Ola Malmqvist said. "Friday was hard because of the wind, but we were able to pull it out. Each day we played better."

The Lady Rebels faced Weber

State Friday, and squeezed out a hard-fought victory, 5-4. They weathered through an off day by No. 24 Marianne Vallin, who lost her match in three sets, 7-6, 6-7, 5-7. Vallin also dropped her doubles match with Astrid Copano, losing in three sets, 6-3, 4-6, 6-7.

"She (Vallin) has been in a slump," Malmqvist said. "But it looks like she's pulling out of it. She has been really unlucky lately. But even without her playing well, she could easily be undefeated. She's that good."

Also dropping singles matches were Marie Linusson and Shiera Stuart. Lisa Annebro, Astrid

Copano and Ljiljana Kordic were all victorious on the singles side of the court.

Both Annebro/Stuart and Kordic/Linusson came out winners in doubles action. It took four hours for the Kordic/Linusson team to dispose of their opponents, 7-5, 6-7, 6-3. The win unlocked the tie that had the two teams even at three wins apiece.

The Lady Rebels did not lose a singles set against New Mexico State Saturday, as they won, 8-1. Vallin rebounded from her performance on Friday to beat Celia Bristow, 6-2, 6-2. Annebro, Copano, Jeannette Fylpaa, Kordic and Linusson were all winners in singles matches.

Down 4-0 early in their doubles match, Vallin/Copano fought back to win the match impressively, 8-4. Malmqvist pulled the duo aside when they were being shut out, and when they came out of the huddle they looked to be a new team.

"Basically I said 'get your asses in gear,'" Malmqvist said. "They didn't come out firing, and basically we were the better team."

Kordic/Linusson also came away with a doubles win while Stuart/Annebro was the only loss of the day for the Lady Rebels.

They finished out the sweep by beating a tough Washington State team, 7-2.

"Sunday we killed a team that's good," Malmqvist said.

Vallin played a hard match and came out with a close win, 7-5, 7-6. Annebro, Copano, Kordic and Linusson were also on the winning side, while Stuart lost her singles match. In doubles action, Vallin/Copano and Stuart/Annebro were both victorious, with Kordic/Linusson dropping a three-set tie breaker match.
