T&M Marketing Director Speaks

Ron Drake, director of marketing for the Thomas & Mack Center, will lecture on sales and marketing at 6 p.m. on Wednesday in MSU 202.

Admission is free and the public and all AMA members are invited.

Interim Accreditation Visit

Two external reviewers from the Northwest Association of Schools and Colleges will be on campus all day Monday and Tuesday until noon.

These visitors will be reviewing all areas of campus as part of the association's standard five-year assessment of how UNLV is progressing on recommendations made during the last full-scale accreditation visit in 1990.

For more information on times and locations, please call 895-3301.

CCSN Imports "French in Action" Live from Denver

The Community College of Southern Nevada, via satellite television, will link up live with the Southwest Conference on the Teaching of Foreign Languages in Denver on Saturday.

Fifty area foreign language teachers will experience the "French in Action" language series from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the High Desert Conference and Training Center on the Cheyenne Campus, 3200 E. Cheyenne Ave.

The Capretz Method, a multimedia course used at over 2,000 schools, has been called the best method ever devised for teaching French.

Seating is limited to 50 teachers for the free video conference, sponsored by the ccsn foreign languages department. Reservations should be made immediately by calling 651-4007, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

C/W Dance Teams Looks for Members

What does the UNLV Country-Western Dance Team have in common with the Marine Corp?

They are both looking for a few good men and women who are willing to devote some time and effort to reaching mutual goals.

The goals are very simple: first, have fun doing c/w dance. Second, become good enough as a team to represent UNLV.

Team leader Marty Quilan holds meetings every Tuesday from 8 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. in Paul McDermott P.E. Complex, room 302. Membership is free and open to all students and faculty, but members are expected to attend practice regularly if they want to perform with the team. For more information, call Marty at 228-3700.

Deadline Approaching for AAUW Scholarships

The application deadline for the 1995 American Association of University of Women, Las Vegas Branch Scholarship is Monday, April 17.

Japanese-Americans Topic of Lecture

"The Japanese-American Experience in Nevada and Arizona" will be the topic of the next University Forum lecture.

The 7:30 p.m. lecture on Thursday, April 6 will be held in the Classroom Building Complex, A-100. It is open to the public and free of charge.

Sue Fawn Chung, chair of UNLV's history department, history master's candidate Andrew Russell and Caryl Suzuki, member of the Japanese-American Citizens' League of Las Vegas will participate in discussions centered around decisions that were made to send Japanese-Americans to internment camps during World War II.

The University Forum Lecture Series is sponsored by the College of Liberal Arts and underwritten by the UNLV Provost. This presentation is sponsored by the UNLV foundation.

For more information on this lecture, call 895-3349.

Bach's Mass in B Minor

The Southern Nevada Musical Arts Society will present Johann Sebastian Bach's monumental "Mass in B Minor" at 3 p.m. on Sunday in UNLV's Artemus W. Ham Concert Hall, the fourth concert in its 32nd season.

The Musical Arts Chorus and Orchestra will be joined by the Premiere Chorale of Los Angeles.

Guest soloists will include Rebecca Martindale Cervantes, soprano; Susan Johnson, contralto; Steve Robinson, tenor; and Cantor Gary Colbart, baritone. Dr. Douglas R. Peterson, conductor, is in his 27th year as music director of the Southern Nevada Musical Arts Society.

Admission is $10 for adults and $7 for seniors, students, military, and handicapped. Tickets may be purchased at the Performing Arts Center box office. For more information, call 895-3801.

Golden

continued from 1 provide leadership opportunities to those who attend.

Scholarships are part of the attraction for most students to join. The amount of the scholarships that are available are based upon the number of new members that join. If 450 new members join, then there is a $450 scholarship for one junior and one senior. All members, including new members, are eligible for the scholarships. A blue profile form that is sent with the invitation letter is used as a basis for judging for the scholarships. The criteria used to judge recipients uses gpa first, then campus activities and accomplishments.

Golden Keys sponsors The Best of America, a national drug and alcohol abuse prevention effort directed at school-aged youth. Other beneficial programs includes aids education, literacy and mentor programs.

Corporations note that Golden Key members are unique nationally for their higher academic achievement and frequently seek to recruit from the society's ranks. The publication, Career Assistance Reference, which lists more than 150 companies, is available to members to provide information and points of contact for career opportunities.
