Sting Signs Former Rebels

Two four-year letterman from the UNLV football team have signed with the Las Vegas Sting of the Arena Football League.

Defensive back Rodney Mazon (5-8, 160 pounds), a four-year starter with nine career interceptions signed last week.

Offensive lineman Howard McGowan (6-4, 282 pounds), another four-year starter, signed with the team Tuesday.

Both players were part of last season's Las Vegas Bowl-winning squad.

Hustlin' Rebels Face Las Vegas Stars

The UNLV baseball team will face the Las Vegas Stars of the Pacific Coast League in an exhibition game Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Cashman Field.

Proceeds from the game will benefit the UNLV baseball program. All seats are general admission and can be purchased at the Cashman Field box office for $5.

Former Rebel Signs With Oakland A's

Former UNLV pitcher Todd Stottlemire signed a one-year contract Tuesday with the Oakland Athletics.

Stottlemire, a member of the 1984 Hustlin' Rebels, agreed to a contract worth $1.8 million, a $550,000 cut from last season when he was a member of the Toronto Blue Jays.

3 innings to gain the win. DeMartini (6-4), struck out one while walking two, and allowed six runs on 10 hits. Erik Oliver pitched scoreless ball over the final 1 1/3.

"We got good pitching considering the elements were terrible," Dallimore said. "It was a tough time to pitch."

SUNDAY: The Rebels had a seven-run fifth inning, leading to the 11-9 victory.

Kleiner went 3-for-5 to stretch his hitting streak to a career-best 19 games, and raised his batting average to .355.

Travis McClendon also had three hits, including a double and a triple, lifting his average to a team-leading .366.

Wilkes knocked his seventh homer for one of his three hits, while Hankins and Crosby also went deep for UNLV.

Tom LaRosa gained the win in relief of starter

Mike Bauder. LaRosa (2-4) pitched 3 1/3 innings, allowing one run on four hits, while striking out five and walking three.

THIS WEEK: The Titans enter the three-game series with a record of 32-6, 7-2 in the Big West, one game ahead of UNLV.

"We needed to win (the NMSU) series before this series, having the impact on the conference that it does. We've battled ourselves right where we want to be. Our future and our destiny is in our own hands."

—Fred Dallimore

"We just have to stay within ourselves and do what we've been doing every weekend," Dallimore said about the Rebels' chances. "Just get good pitching and stay away from the big innings. And we have to take advantage of every scoring opportunity we get."

On the mound with seven saves, and hasn't allowed a run this season. The Titans are outpitching their opponents .336 to .252, and their team ERA is 3.25, compared to 7.41 for their foes. In comparison, the Rebels are batting .305, and their team ERA is 5.36.

Since Fullerton turned Division I in 1975, they have won national championships in 1979 and 1984, and are 35-13 lifetime against UNLV.

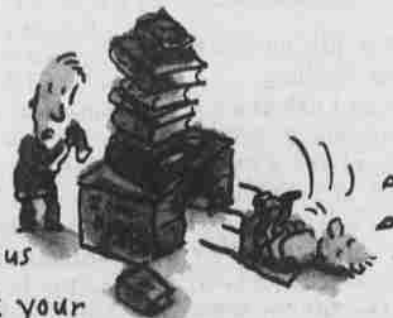

The Titans swept last year's series at Fullerton (16-1, 20-1, 3-0), and have won the last nine meetings between the two teams.

"Last year's games don't have anything to do with this year's games," Dallimore said. "But our kids are a year older. We think our pitching is a little better. Our overall team is a little better."

ings. And we have to take advantage of every scoring opportunity we get."

CSUF is led by sophomore center fielder Mark Kotsay. Kotsay, a player-of-the-year candidate, is hitting .435 with 10 homers and 51 RBIs. In addition, he is 2-
