continued from 11 guard, could provide the on-court leadership that last season's team lacked at times.

A favorite of Dixie coach Dave Rose, Davis also has a sound academic background.

Sanders, a 6-3 shooting guard, is considered a top-80 high school player and could provide immediate help next season.

Bell, a 6-foot-6 power forward, is part of Bayno's East Coast connection, and is considered a project.

UNLV sources refused to confirm the signings since the school hasn't officially received the players' letters-of-intent, and also because of NCAA rules.

Chaffey center Avondre Jones, who was leaning towards UNLV before Tim Grgurich's resignation, is now reportedly going to Fresno State to play for former Runnin' Rebels coach Jerry Tarkanian, who was hired by his alma mater April 5.

Academic question mark Mark Blount, a 6-foot-11 center from Dobbs Ferry (N.Y.) High School, is rumored to be heading to UNLV, although school officials deny it.

Tennis: Men headed to BWC Championships

BY MICHAEL MELISSA
STAFF REPORTER

The UNLV men's tennis team's regular season came to a close this week when they were blanked by the University of Southern California, 7-0, on Tuesday.

The Rebels finish the season ranked 36th nationally, going 8-10 overall and 3-1 in Big West play.

"Oh God we were really close," Rebel coach Larry Easley said. "We had a couple of match points on the doubles court that we could have won. But we competed well."

The only win of the match for the Rebels came at No. 1 doubles where Thomas Schrader and Luke Smith won their set, 8-5. It proved to make no difference in the final outcome as the teams of Rob Norton/Brett Taitz and Roger Pettersson/Julius Pohjola were both defeated, giving the doubles point to the Trojans. The point was almost won by Pettersson/Pohjola, taking the set to an 8-9 tie breaker.

No. 20 Pettersson lost only his ninth match of the season, when

"This will be a good finish to the season. But we are definitely the underdogs. It will be pretty competitive."

he was dropped in three sets by Brett Hansen, 1-6, 6-1, 3-6. Pettersson finished the season at 23-9.

Smith also played a tough match at the No. 2 spot for the Rebels, but still came up short, losing in three sets, 7-6, 2-6, 4-6. The Trojans controlled the rest of the matches fairly easily, beating Norton, Pohjola, Schrader and Taitz in straight sets.

The Rebels are now gearing up to defend their Big West crown in Ojai, Calif., April 27-30. It will be the first time in UNLV history that the men's tennis team will be defending the championship.
