The UNLV baseball team celebrated coach Fred Dallimore's milestone of 750 career wins by pounding Southern Utah, 15-0 and 14-2, at Earl E. Wilson Stadium Tuesday and Wednesday.

Left fielder Ted Wilkes sent his eighth home run of the season over the left-field scoreboard for two runs in the eighth to give the Rebels a commanding 11-0 lead in Tuesday's game.

Pitcher Mike Bauder (3-0) left the game after completing five innings, striking out six batters and allowing only one hit.

The struggling Thunderbirds, 10-32 on the season, were not able to muster any offense, gathering only three hits in Tuesday's loss.

The Rebels' hit parade was led by Ryan Hankins (3-for-4, two RBIs), Scott Vincent (3-for-5, two RBIs and three runs scored), Stacy Kleiner (2-for-4, three RBIs and two runs scored), Ryan Plughoff (2-for-5, two runs scored and two RBIs) and Wilkes (2-for-2, two RBIs, three runs scored and three walks). Travis McCleendon hit his seventh homer of the season, while Plughoff added his sixth.

In Wednesday's 14-2 rout, the Rebels' explosive offense left little suspense in the game by taking a 12-1 lead into the seventh inning.

In the fifth inning, Wilkes opened the Rebels' lead to 8-1 by adding a three-run double to right-center field.

Brian Anthony crushed his 13th home run of the season over the left-field fence. Hankins hit his 11th home run of the year.

Pitcher Erik Oliver (4-2) earned the win in a game that marched five Rebel pitchers to the mound (starter Joel Garber, Oliver, Denny DeMartini, Tom LaRosa and Fred Koehne).

The sweep moved the Rebels' lifetime record against the Thunderbirds to 68-11.
