

U. Magazine is a quarterly, 66-page, bi-monthly lifestyle and entertainment magazine among 18- to 24-year-old college students. Editorial content focuses on the diverse interests, activities, attitudes and concerns of students attending two-year colleges and universities. U.'s assistant editors, selected each year from top graduating seniors, read campus newspapers, commission original articles and photography for the best student journalists, and maintain an ongoing dialogue via the Internet and U.'s e-mail with students at hundreds of campuses nationwide.
