Savoy Signs Professional Contract

Former Rebel power forward Patrick Savoy has signed a professional contract with Murcia of the Spanish B-level.

The Louisiana native, who averaged 14.7 points and 7.3 rebounds a game his senior year, has the possibility to be promoted to the A-Division.

Despite being offered several free agent contracts with NBA franchises, Savoy decided to pursue his career overseas.

A main factor in his decision was the NBA lock out. Patrick had no desires to wait around while the NBA union and executives resolve the labor situation.

Savoy is already familiar with European basketball style from a summer tour he went on with the 1993 junior college all-star team.
