

Briefs

A National Council on the Aging conference recently featured UNLV senior adult theater students in a performance of "Seasons," an original play generated out of UNLV's playwriting program.

"The Green in Winter," a series of short plays for long-living actors written by UNLV's Masters of Fine Arts playwriting candidates will be the focus of the Senior Adult Theater program's 1995-96 season.

Nine Tibetan Lamas from the Drepung Loseling Monastery will perform at UNLV as part of their world tour of "Sacred Music, Sacred Dance" to promote world healing.

The Tibetan monks will draw from their traditional temple music and masked dances to perform an arrangement of pieces believed to generate energies conducive to world harmony.

The fund-raiser, sponsored by S.C.O.P.E. and the Progressive Leadership Alliance of Nevada, will be at UNLV's Wright Auditorium, Room 103, on Sept. 19 at 7 p.m. Suggested donations for tickets are $15. Tickets will be available at the door or call 436-6177 for advance purchases (seating is limited).
