

Clubbin'

from pg. 6

Jewish Student Union: President, Alon Ventura. Open to anyone interested in Judaism. Dues: $10 to join. Offers services, lecturers, mailers, museum trips, guest speakers on subjects such as numerology in the Bible. The mission is to provide a forum for Jewish youth to interact at UNLV.

Latter Day Saints Student Association: President, Dan Schott. Open to students who are willing to live by church standards. Any LDS member or graduate of institute class can join. Women's sorority: Lamda Delta Sigma. Dues: $20 to join. Meets at 7 p.m. Tuesdays. Based on the five ideals of spirituality, scholarship, sisterhood, support and service. Men's fraternity: Sigma Gamma Chi. No dues. Has budget provided for activities. Six ideals are spirituality, brotherhood, service, leadership, scholarship and patriotism. Donates time to soup kitchens, food drives, community clean-up.

SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS

If it's meeting people you're into, the social club scene is probably a good place to start. Most encourage students — via meetings, fund-raising and, of course — parties, to get out and get the most, both socially and academically, out of your college years. Below is a compilation of some social-based organizations on this campus.

GREEK LIFE ORGANIZATIONS:

FRATERNITIES

Alpha Epsilon Pi: President, Jake Cransy. First fraternity to colonize at UNLV in 1967. Open to men who seek to uphold Jewish-based principles. International fraternity includes 140 chapters in U.S. and Canada. Mission: to build a life-time commitment to brotherhood and a positive college experience. Philanthropic mission: Taysechs, and undefined genetic hereditary disease that cripples small children.

Alpha Tau Omega: President, W.B. Marks. National, social-based fraternity. Must be male to join and have 2.0 grade point to rush, 2.5 GPA to stay. Membership fees include activities, national dues, insurance. Philanthropic mission: three community service events per year.

Beta Theta Pi: President, Martin Melendrez

Delta Sigma Phi: President, Jason Ferris

Kappa Sigma: President, Anthony Faso. International social fraternity looking for a well-rounded gent who will make a good brother. Dues: About $200 a semester. Must maintain a 2.0 GPA. Philanthropic mission: Animal Foundation. Donate time feeding/caring for animals. Raised $20,000 last year for foundation at PetsMart by taking pictures of pets. Won trophy five out of last five years for most athletic fraternity.

Lambda Chi Alpha: President, Paul Mangual. Third largest international fraternity looking for brothers who can lead by example and follow second to none. Dues are $52 a month. Must carry nine credits, maintain 2.3 GPA. Won most philanthropic chapter last year; in the last three years, have donated over 10,000 pounds of canned goods to Las Vegas Community Food bank and over 400 hours to the UNLV Pre-School. For information, call 452-2586.

Phi Delta Theta: President, J.B. Rizzo. International, 200-strong chapters looking for men with good grades. Dues: $200, includes intramural fees, liability insurance, T-shirts, manuals and parties. Minimum 2.3 GPA to join, nine credits to maintain. More of an academic fraternity. Philanthropic mission: Lou Gehrig's Disease.

Pi Kappa Alpha: President, Pat Smith. Looking for scholars, leaders, athletes and gentlemen who have the competitive edge. National fraternity, founded in 1868, with over 170,000 members. Dues: $175, includes local/national membership. Self-insured to $6 million. Must have a 2.50 GPA to pledge, 2.75 GPA once accepted. Weekly meetings. Philanthropic goal: 3,500 hours donated to community service.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon: President, Ryan Clark.

Sigma Chi: President, Aaron Rosenthal. Social fraternity that stresses academics. Dues include lifetime membership. International organization, with 1,300 joining every year. Must have a 2.50 GPA to pledge; combined highest GPA in men's social clubs on campus for 1994-95 spring semester. Largest men's fraternity on campus.

Sigma Phi Epsilon: President. Looking for founding fathers to restart one of the nation's largest collegiate fraternities on UNLV campus. Over 15,000 undergrads currently belong. Looking to build balanced leaders for America's communities. No hazing.

Tau Kappa Epsilon: President, Scott Pattison. Social fraternity that emphasizes diversity in both ethnicity and opinions. Dues: $250 a semester, includes social events, intramural sports, parties. Philanthropic mission: help with events, staffing with Special Olympics.

SORORITIES

Alpha Delta Pi: President, Cookie Hawkins.

Alpha Gamma Delta: President, Allison Evans. Looking for well-rounded, motivated young women who want to make the most of their college years. Emphasis on moving forward and establishing traditions. Philanthropic mission: Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Won most philanthropic chapter for the 1994-95 school year.

Delta Kappa Delta: New to UNLV, looking for founding sisters.

Delta Zeta: President, Jennifer Tipps. Sorority that enhances both academic and social life. Weekly Sunday meetings, many times with other fraternities, sororities. International organization. Philanthropic mission: speech and hearing impaired.

Sigma Kappa: President, Sara Fratt.

one is welcome — diversity and harmony are the only criteria.

Black Student Association: President, Kennita Chase. Everyone welcome. Dues: $5 per semester, includes socials, outings, speakers, literary night. Mission: to increase the participation of African American students at UNLV and to culturally enhance and enlighten the campus. Conducts fund-raisers for scholarship fund for continuing education students. Sponsors events to help the Shade Tree Shelter.

Hawaii Club: President, Shane Omonaka. Open to any students who are interested in Hawaiian culture. Dues: $20 for first semester, $10 for second semester, includes T-shirt, intramural sports, speakers, road-trips. Community service: assist the Kiwanis Club. Sponsor the annual Ho'olau'lea Festival, traditional Hawaiian fare, entertainment, wares. Membership has doubled from 40 last year to 80 this year.

Korean American Student Association: President, Kibeom Bae. Active at UNLV since 1982 with over 100 current members. Open to all Korean students. Dues: $25 annually, plus $15 per semester. Sponsors parties for new students, ski trips and other events. Community service includes helping out in retirement homes. Goal: to help Korean students acclimate to life in Las Vegas and the United States while in college. Offers help finding apartments, rides, and provides tutors to help with homework, language translations.

SOCIAL ORGANIZATIONS NON-GREEK

Whether you're seeking general socializing or socializing with a specific ethnic group, UNLV has it covered. Every-

Rebel Ballroom Dance Association: Faculty advisor, Donna Medrano. Open to anyone interested in ballroom dancing. Dues: $10 annually. Meet Friday from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. for dance lab.

MUSIC @ 4 LESS

RIGHT MUSIC...RIGHT PRICE...RIGHT NOW!!!

Belz Outlet Mall 896-0272

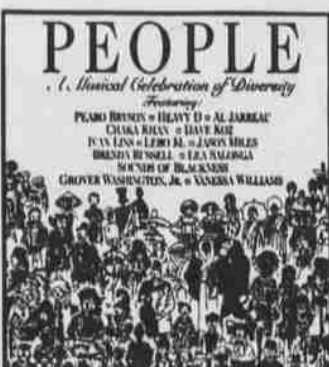

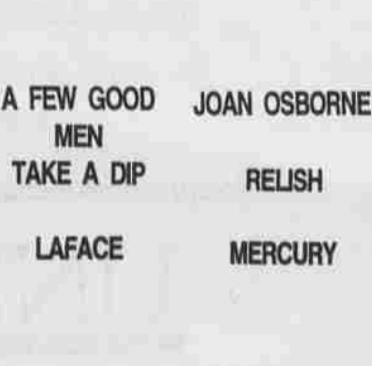

Buy it, Try it!

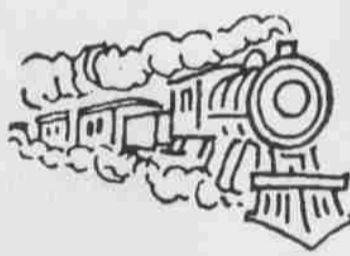

GUARANTEE

The following music is guaranteed to expand your musical horizons. If you're not completely satisfied, bring it back (with your receipt) within 2 weeks and you can exchange it for another Cassette or CD of equal value.

 PEOPLE A CELEBRATION OF DIVERSITY	 SAWYER BROWN WANTIN' AND HAVIN' IT ALL
 A FEW GOOD MEN	 JOAN OSBORNE RELISH	 LAFACE MERCURY

NEXT WEEK:
Don't miss part two of "Trains, Planes and Automobiles." Steph will talk about how to get the lowest fare to most anywhere.

kinko's®

Mail Center NOW OPEN

PRIVATE MAIL BOX RENTALS

24 Hour Access

$5⁰⁰

per month, with valid UNLV ID

UPS • FedEx • MAIL DROP
4440 South Maryland Parkway • (702) 735-4402
Shipping, Packaging • 6 month minimum rental