'Something for Everyone' opens Dance Arts season

BY JAN WILLIAMS
A & E EDITOR

The UNLV Dance Arts season opener, "Something for Everyone," is set for 8 p.m. on Friday in the Judy Bayley Theatre on campus.

Featured in the performance is Ernesta Corvino, artistic director of Ernesta Corvino's Dance Circle Company in New York and current Artist-in-Residence in UNLV's dance department.

Department Chair Louis Kavouras will present the West Coast premier of "Rainforest Dreaming," originally commissioned and premiered by the Halifax Dance company of Halifax, Nova Scotia. His solo, "Ogunquit, Maine," accompanied by an environmental sound score is also featured.

Also on the program is the award-winning UNLV Ballroom Formation Team, under the direction of Donna Medrano. She, along with partner David Fernandez, performs "Noelle," sung by Andy Williams. The team is also featured in a tribute to Ginger Rogers, created by guest artists Clement Zelewski and Dolly Kelepecz. Costumes, original and re-staged dance movements are all set to music used by Rogers and Fred Astaire.

Additional performances are at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Saturday, with a final performance at 2 p.m. on Sunday. Tickets are $8 for general admission and $5 for students, military and seniors. For more information, call the box office at 895-3801.

SNOOZE

You slept through morning classes. And now you're gonna blow off the afternoon. The sad thing is - your parents have no clue. They think you're working hard. They're convinced you're busting your butt. They're - damn proud. If only they could see you now. Lying there like a lump. Suddenly guilt sets in. You feel so low. Quickly, you reach for the phone and surprise the folks with a call. Ahhh, now you can sleep in peace.
