HOLLYWOOD'S GETTING A BIG OL' lump of coal in its stocking this year. Tim Allen's tossed out his pillows. Macauley Culkin's too busy partying to outfox those wascally burglars. Even Tiny Tim's probably off trying to sneak into Showgirls. We've got adventure, fantasy, drama and scandal, but no heart-warming holiday hash. If you want Bumble the abominable snowman, rent Rudolph.

Cutthroat Island

MGM/UA

It's 1650 on the high seas, where real men wore patches (for motion sickness — those waters were rough). Matthew Modine plays the swashbuckling, treasure-hunting, rum-swilling, skull-and-cross-bone-waving, timber-shivering lord of the plank. And Geena Davis plays the babe.

Anthony Hopkins plays Mr. I-Am-Not-a-Crook. Ed Harris (Apollo 13) also stars, but it just may need a scene with Juliette Lewis shimmying to liven it up à la Stone's Natural Born Killers.

Mary Reilly

Columbia TriStar

Let's see. How to get a gorgeous woman in the old Dr. Jekyll/Mr. Hyde story... Make the Jekyll half be a gorgeous woman? Done already. OK, make the gorgeous woman Dr. Jekyll's maid. Who falls in love with him. Julia Roberts is the maid. John Malkovich (In the Line of Fire) is the mad scientist.

Wild Bill

MGM/UA

It's about time someone glorified the Old West, brought to life some of those legendary heroes.... Ahem. Jeff Bridges (Blown Away) plays the famous sharpshooter Wild Bill Hickok. Ellen Barkin (This Boy's Life) plays Calamity Jane. And if you're really good, Buffalo Bill Cody will make an appearance, too.

Sabrina

Paramount

Bogart and Hepburn made the first one a classic. Now Julia Ormond (First Knight) fills Audrey's shoes, Harrison Ford Bogie's, in this Cinderella tale of two brothers vying for one girl. Greg Kinnear (the guy on after Conan) plays the playboy brother. Talk show guy or Han Solo? Tough call.

The Stupids

Savoy

Need we say more? Tom Arnold stars. Now, need we say more? OK, OK. Based on the best-selling kids' books, The Stupids is about the Stupid family, a clan so dumb it's happy. Even the dog, Kitty. We're thinking they live in the woods and the Whiners.

Dracula: Dead and Loving It

Castle Rock

He's spoofed westerns, space and Kevin Costner, Prince of Thieves. Now Mel Brooks (Robin Hood: Men in Tights) is taking a bite out of the horror genre. Leslie Nielsen (Naked Gun), another king of satire, stars as a clutzy Dracula. He's not a bad guy — he just wants to neck.

Father of the Bride Part II

Touchstone Pictures

The bride (Kimberly Williams) is expecting; so is her father. Can Steve Martin deal with being an old Daddy and a young Grandpa? Didn't Dianne Wiest do this in another Steve Martin movie (Parent Hood)? Martin Short returns, only this time he's coordinating the baby shower.

The Rocky Horror Picture Show

You're not still a virgin, are you? Isn't there some sort of rule that you have to do it by Thanksgiving break? Why not do it this Saturday night, at midnight — and don't forget your squirt gun.

The Rocky Horror Picture Show, one movie that only gets better the more you watch it, turned 20 this year. And it's still going strong, probably at a cheesy theater near you.

Rocky Horror features Tim Curry (The Hunt for Red October) as Frank N. Furter, the sweet transvestite from the planet Transylvania. He provides shelter — and a whole lot more — for Brad (asshole!) and Janet (slut!) on a dark and stormy night. A pre-Bull Durham Susan Sarandon plays Janet.

Rocky Horror is the longest-running film in cinema history. How could it die? It's not like you can pop it in your living room VCR, dance around in lingerie, throw toast at your brother and shout at the TV. Well, maybe you can. But you kind of miss something if you can't have group sex in a packed theater and learn new responses from people who have taken in Shows around the nation.

Why such a cult following for a movie that's just plain bad?

"Maybe it's like being in love," suggests Sarandon. "You shouldn't try and dissect it."

The Reel Deal

Mighty Aphrodite

And you thought there would never be use in knowing deus ex machina and all that other Greek tragedy crap. Mighty Aphrodite, written and directed by Woody Allen, has all the elements: A hero whose hubris almost gets the best of him, a blind soothsayer named Tiresias, a Chorus that narrates the tale from an outdoor amphitheater — then steps into the hero's New York apartment to stop him from calling a prostitute. It's classic.

Allen and Helena Bonham Carter (Mary Shelley's Frankenstein) play a couple who adopt a baby (no Woody Allen adoptee cracks, please). Mira Sorvino (Quiz Show) plays Linda, the birth mother, a porn star and actress/hairdresser wannabe.

Sorvino, whose character has an apartment tastefully decorated with phallic symbols, calls her part the greatest dumb blonde role in the past 25 years, if not ever.

"I walked around in Philly in spiked heels and in crazy little fluffy sweaters and outrageous leopard prints, and I was Linda for three days in preparation for starting the film."

When the Chorus breaks into a Broadway number, you know you're watching high comedy. Er, tragedy. Whatever. Euripides would be proud.

hostage. Pittsburgh's Jean-Claude Van Damme is the clock to save his sleeve.

She plays a daughter of the film. Hugh Grant also adapted the fashionable oomph.
