Your path to a rewarding career.

Earn a Master of Occupational Therapy at Samuel Merritt College in Oakland.

Occupational therapists help people of all ages whose ability to live normally or care for themselves has been affected by illness or injury. It's a growing field with an abundance of employment opportunities that can provide you with both personal and professional rewards.

At Samuel Merritt College, the two-year curriculum in our entry-level program (followed by a six month internship) is based on a Mindbody model which honors the interconnection of the mind and body as one entity. Our students benefit from an outstanding faculty, small classes with individual attention, and access to a human cad. er lab on our state-of-the-art campus at Summit Medical Center.

Samuel Merritt College was founded in 1909 and also offers undergraduate and graduate degree programs in nursing and physical therapy. Our Master of Occupational Therapy Program is fully accredited by the Accreditation Council for Occupational Therapy Education (ACOTE).
