Help Wanted

RESEARCH EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY PART-TIME, TEMPORARY Johnson, Bassin, & Shaw, Inc. (JBS), a Maryland based policy research consulting firm, is working with the Nevada Bureau of Alcohol and Drug Abuse (BADA) to conduct a federally funded study of Substance Abuse Need for Treatment among Arrestees (SANTA). We are recruiting interviewers to administer a modified drug version of the Drug Use Forecasting (DUF) to recent arrestees in the Clark County Detention Center in Las Vegas. Interviewer training will be conducted on November 2 and November 3 from 9am-5pm, with data collection scheduled to begin the week of November 4. Interviewers will be paid $4.75 per hour for the training, $8 per hour for the work at the facility and will be reimbursed for mileage. Internship credit is also possible. Work hours are flexible, with interviewers expected to work at least 10 hours per week through mid-January. This is an excellent opportunity for students interested in the criminal justice/substance abuse field and for those interested in being involved in a large-scale Federal research study. For more information or to request an application, please call Nancy Rivera at (800) 865-0967, extension 3117 or Fran Tepper at (800) 865-0967, extension 3246.

We can help!

We're the Peer Resource Network, a new group of UNLV student volunteers who are here to help other students. We can help you find the answers to your questions, help you explore campus resources, or simply listen as you talk through your concerns.

Beginning Oct. 15th, you can find us in the Student Services Complex, on the 2nd floor.

PEER RESOURCE NETWORK

We're UNLV students, just like you, and we're here for you!
