UNLV Career Services job listings now on-line

The Rebel Yell

The days of searching through jobs on the UNLV Career Services bulletin boards are over. Career Services, in partnership with Student Financial Services, introduces JOBTRAK, the most convenient method to access on-line job postings directed at UNLV students and alumni. Students can now access career-related and professional job listings from any campus website, 7 days per week, 24 hours per day. The listings include part-time, full-time, professional and internship opportunities.

For accessing JOBTRAK listings, you need to go to their website (<http://www.nscee.edu/unlv/studentservices/careerservices/>).

Students and alumni can search jobs by geographic location, date, position, job-type category or keyword.

How is JOBTRAK unique? Unlike public access career databases, UNLV has a unique and password-protected database on JOBTRAK that can only be accessed by the UNLV students and alumni. This security allows employers to target their recruitment efforts to UNLV students and alumni, assuring them a highly-qualified, extremely motivated pool of candidates. The service is provided free to students and alumni, while employers pay a nominal fee to post their positions.

Why is JOBTRAK so appealing to students and alumni? Students registered with Career Services are extremely comfortable with the web and utilizing the JOBTRAK database has become their primary method of searching for employment.

JOBTRAK partners with over 700 college and university career centers, MBA programs and alumni associations and is one of the largest and most popular sites on the Internet. Since 1987, over 300,000 employers have utilized the service to target their full- and part-time job openings to college students, MBAs and alumni. The site is currently processing more than 3,000 new job openings daily and is accessed by over 35,000 job-seeking students each day. JOBTRAK was honored as the Entrepreneur of the Year by the State of California in 1992 and was a semifinalist for the prestigious National Information and Infrastructure Award in 1996.

In addition to job listing services, the UNLV Career Services office offers students and alumni many other services including career counseling, workshops, resume review and mock interview sessions and registration for on-campus recruitment via the WEB. For more information, contact Career Services at 895-3495.
