

Letters to you

Dear Jack and Bea--
 We were very happy to hear of your new venture-- Lots of the best--From here, you can't miss this time. We certainly will enjoy reading your little paper & it will bring us all a little closer even reading your articles--
 My Debora is going to Hebrew High. She is 13 and has 2 students. She teaches Hebrew, Conversation, History, Ethics, etc. She goes to Camp Ramah in the Summer--which as you know is a Hebrew speaking camp. Milton's wife is a Hebrew teacher. They live in Teaneck, too & she is the one that inspired Debbie to further her Hebrew.
 So again--lots of mazel & good health & we hope your paper will prosper.

Love,
 Pearl Dworkin

Dear Jack:
 I just returned from Portugal, having spent three weeks with my daughter who is spending her junior year from Wisconsin at the University of Madrid, and found the announcement of your new publication.
 I hasten to send you my check for $10.00 for 104 issues which I am sure will be full of interesting reading. Every wish to you for the success you so justly deserve.

Always,
 Nat Goldstein
 New York Times

Dear Jack:
 Good luck and best wishes,
 Sam Dvorak & family

Dear Jack:
 Good luck.
 Gene W. Osheroff

Dear Jack:
 Good luck.
 Mr. & Mrs. Frank Soskin

Dear Jack:
 It is with great pleasure that we express our wishes for lots of "mozel" and success of the Las Vegas Israelite. It feels good to read all the good wishes and congratulations from people. We, however, were thrilled and proud to see the names Jack Tell, Publisher, and Bea Tell, Business Manager. I can imagine all the hardships and effort you both went through to accomplish that task.
 Morris & Bessie Friedman

Dear Jack:
 Just what we needed! We're proud to follow your lead.
 Helen & Israel Perlmutter

Dear Jack:
 Good luck.
 Mr. & Mrs. Louis Kravitz

Dear Jack:
 Congratulations on your launching of the Las Vegas Israelite.

Your perseverance and confidence to get the paper out of the planning stages despite the multitudes of obstacles encountered is indicative of your talents as a great editor and journalist to forge ahead.

I personally, had knowledge of what you were up against in initiating this wonderful Judaism news media and hope that all peoples who read the Israelite will never despair over life's ups and downs. You certainly displayed unique talent and ability in publishing an ideal tabloid newspaper for everyone to read with ease.

Godspeed to you and family, with the deepest and sincere wishes from Beverly and myself that your plans for a leading Jewish newspaper will be the basis for a stronger and more solidified community of all faiths to achieve the ultimate objectives of cementing the relationships of every citizen, regardless of beliefs, at the local, state and national levels.

Sincerely,
 Mitchell Bell

Dear Jack:--
 I am laying odds that your paper will become an oasis of polemical virtue in a refuge of sin. I wish you luck already.

JWVA MEETS WED.

The next regular meeting of the J.W.V. Auxiliary will be held Wednesday Feb. 24th, at 8:30 P.M. at the Temple Beth Shalom. Prospective members and their husbands are cordially invited to attend our meeting. The wonderful program planned for that evening will be dear to the hearts of many people as it will be a "Talk on Israel".

The speaker for the evening will be Toby Isler, who received his Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration; and graduate studies in Public Relations.

He lived in Israel from June of 1963 through June of 1964. He is presently Investment Counsellor at Unity Capital Corporation.

His talk will be on "Living in Israel and investments in Israel."

Another important feature of the evening will be elections for the coming year.

Dear Mr. Tell:
 Enclosed check for $10.00, we didn't forget, we've just never taken the trouble of sending you a check.

However, any man who has nerve enough to say, "You will receive the Israelite whether you subscribe or not," should not be taken advantage of.

We get to Las Vegas very often, am looking forward to some day meeting you.

Best wishes for a huge success which you will surely have with your paper.

Sincerely,
 "Vic." Dollinger
 American Shoe Company
 (Reno)

Dear Jack:
 Your Las Vegas Israelite is becoming a provocative reading habit that should be unanimously adopted by Nevada Jewry.

Ralph Pearl

Dear Jack:
 I envy you--getting my dear friend, Rabbi Gold, away from us. You all are so fortunate. Good luck.

Dr. Leonard J. Levick
 (Philadelphia--where else?)

Dear Jack:
 Good luck.
 Mr. & Mrs. Frank Cobert

Dear Jack:
 The luckiest thing that happened this year to the Las Vegas Jewish population is the Las Vegas Israelite.

Good luck.

 (Ababa Arms)

NCJW KING CROWNED

A new king was crowned at the National Council of Jewish Women "King for a Night" which was held at Temple Beth Shalom on Sun. eve. Feb. 14. Last year's king, Louis Exber relinquished the crown to the new king, John Lindner, 2217 Beverly Way, one of the musicians who entertained at the gala affair.

Mrs. Al Kirschner, past President, escorted the new king to the throne. Mr. Barney Schollnick was Master of Ceremonies and Mrs. Sam Axler was the clairvoyant.

All members of NCJW are to be congratulated on a job well done. Mrs. Neal Leppo, president, was in charge of decorations; Mrs. Joseph

Dear Jack,
 I know we are among your late well-wishers. But there is a Hebrew saying: "Although our wishes are belated, they come from the heart."

May your newly born "Las Vegas Israelite" be a great success and may it go from strength to strength.

Kindest regards to you and Mrs. Tell.

Sincerely,
 Cantor and Mrs. Herman Kinnory

Dear Jack:
 To Jack and Bea Tell and all the family: We wish you the greatest success in your new venture. Best regards.
 Ed & Mil Flegler

Dear Jack:
 May you have all the success in the world. We did start off on the wrong foot, when you called on the telephone. Now we start over again. Good luck.

Jere Snyder
 (ED. NOTE: Its a real comfort, Jere, to know a woman who does so much for our Jewish community and is so understanding and considerate. Welcome home, Jack T.)

Dear Jack:
 Good luck.
 Mrs. Ann Carsh

Dear Jack:
 Best of luck.
 Mr. & Mrs. B. Gibrick

Dear Jack:
 Good luck.
 Abe and Ann

Cohen; refreshments; Mrs. Annette Tobic, tickets chairman.

Dear Bea & Jack:
 Harry has asked me to convey to you his deep gratitude for your interest and consideration when he was in the hospital--and to thank you for the greatest gift you could have brought him--
 Fondly,
 Kay
 (Wallerstein)

Dear Jack:
 You may remember Mrs. (Rose) Spiegel as the little old lady with the thick glasses or speak to Claire Dase for further I.D., if needed. At any rate, all best wishes on your new venture--may it be a highly successful one! It's great reading so far--keep it up.
 Mr. & Mrs. Israel Spiegel

TELL TALES

Last Saturday we attended the Bar Mitzvah of Robert Katz, whose rendition of the Services made his parents and other relatives truly proud. But we were amazed and delighted to see and hear and be a part of the Saturday morning Services. We know they are going on all the time, as any Jew is aware, but somehow we never realized the beauty and comfort of Friday evening was here all over again the next day. So we warn all members of our Faith who we will meet on future daily meanderings around town in search of prospective advertisers. Watch out.
 If we were a pest in the past in our insistence that others attend our Services. From now on we are going to be downright obnoxious.
