

HELENE STADLER IN VEGAS

Esther Gilson recuperating from surgery would like to hear from the gals. She is with her daughter Galle and son-in-law, LeRoy Sirota, 16650 Vintage St. Sepulveda, Calif. Do drop her a line.

Regret my daughter Francine will not let me write about her being at the Gloval Awards Dinner which was viewed by T.V. audiences all over the country (the Andy Williams Show). She not only was there, but was sitting at the same table and next to Gene Barry (Capt. Burke of Burke's Law) who won the best male acting award on T.V. Oh, well!

Gorgeous Joy Moss spent a few days in Las Vegas with dad, Eddie, and brother David, resting up before the new semester started. Joy is a sophomore at Arizona State University. The Moss's are patiently (really not so patiently) awaiting the arrival of the stork at the Cram (daughter Terri) household. Dad Bryan will be getting his Doctorate Degree in Education before too long, making him one of the youngest to have such a degree and he did it all by his lonesome.

Mardi Gras tickets are now being sold. All monies raised go to the Rose de Lima hospital so that new equipment can be purchased. Affair takes place March 2 in the Flamingo Hotel convention room, beginning at 6 PM.

Richard Greenspun's parents (Dave and Belle) are mighty proud of him. While Richard was recuperating from a knee injury he went to Nevada Southern here in Vegas and maintained a straight A average. Now that he is well and able to get about he has returned to UCLA for the latter half of his sophomore year.

Las Vegas welcomes Joe and Rita Stifter. Also belated birthday to you, Joe.

Mrs. Mike (the former Gail Goodman) Dulien, in town to spend a few days with her family while hubby is adding to their fortune in other parts of the country. Gail, you look pretty good.

Wedding bells will be ringing soon for Phil Bader, I hear. So zul zahn mit glick. Phil is the son of Mary Marks.

George Rosencrantz will be leading our Temple choir when needed. That is George, always there when needed.

Understand Fay Glaxters two daughters are beautiful. They originally come from Indianapolis.

Helen & Aaron Weisberg (Sands Hotel) timed their trip to Florida just in time as the weather here in Vegas turned cool and cloudy.

Edythe and Lou Govendo back after spending a month on the East Coast.

Lou Kravitz doing nicely after surgery.

Want a good furniture polish, marble cleaner, and appliance polish? Why not try Megulars? ITS THE BEST. Distributor of this particular product is Marvin Myers. He and his Helen are active in the community and Helen is now Treasurer of the B'nai B'rith Aux.

Condolences to Mrs. George (Ruth) Walker on the loss of her mother.

Jean Kengla is crocheting the prettiest hats to be worn when your hair is a mess as well as when you want a pretty chapeau. She, like others, is making these hats to raise donors for Hadassah. There are various shapes and styles in an assortment of yarns, too. If interested call her at 642-3052 after 10 am. Thanks.

Girls to man the Thrift Shop for Hadassah are needed. This is an excellent way to raise money and donor credit is given. Do call Pat Friedkin who has given many hours of her time, and she will assign you. Her phone is 384-1477.

Aside to Lil and Ken Glick-en. I have not forgotten the invite. First chance I have I will stop in to see you both. I am sure you are enjoying your lovely home too.

Dr. & Mrs. Joseph Fink (Charlotte) showing our fair city to their aunt & uncle, Mr. & Mrs. James (Ruth)

Baby Susan Frances

Susan Frances Peilte, born Feb. 1, became the seventh grandchild for Sid and Bea Peilte.

Susan, who weighed in at six pounds, eleven and three quarter ounces, is the daughter of Jacob and Bonnie Peilte of Anaheim, Calif.

Miller from Auburn, Maine. If nothing else, they cannot get over the excellent weather we Las Vegas are experiencing for January and early February.

Mr. & Mrs. Jack Gottlieb, Dunes landlord, entertaining Mrs. Gottlieb's sister, Mrs. Charlotte Reed from Clinton, Iowa.

Sherlock Feldman, the big little personable guy, appeared on the Regis Philbin T.V. show the other afternoon (Wednesday, 4:30 PM) at which time he told some interesting stories.

I am happy to welcome Claire Dase to the family of the fourth estaters. Her column called "I Declare" is rather clever, and I enjoy reading what you write.

Goldie Mendelsohn, now residing in Los Angeles, sends regards to the gals. Aside to Sally Gordon--give her your new address.

When Mrs. Rose Schorr, national president, JWVA, arrived in town mmes. Mark Bravo, Alfred Koch, Harry Berger and Charles Isler met her at the airport and presented her with a gift.

Get well wishes to Julius Korn, father of Jeanne Tobman.

Anyone interested in purchasing a 1963 Chris Craft Cavalier Cabin Cruiser? It has 185 HP, 72 hours running time, sleeps 4, with refrigerator, 2 burner stove, dinette and is just loaded with extras. When it was purchased everything one could think of was put on and in it. It's located at Willow Beach, slip 34B. Call me at 735-2323 or after 5:30 PM at 384-3685 if you wish to see it. It is being sold most reasonable and you can have it in time for the good weather. This boat is just like new.

Because of a certain incident, I believe it best that

Rabbi's Installation

The week end of Feb. 26 thru' 28 will see the outstanding historical event of Rabbi Aaron S. Gold, being installed, at Temple Beth Shalom. So important and far reaching is this ceremony, that Governor Grant Sawyer will be here specially for the occasion. Starting on the Friday evening, with the Sabbath services, and with the U.S.Y. group giving a dance for the Rabbi and his lovely wife, Rita, on Saturday night, with the Religious school having its own installation of him on Sunday morning, and up to the climax, when on Sunday evening the final installation service, will prove to be a most eventful time for the Jewish Community of Las Vegas.

The Temple extends a cordial invitation for all to come and participate, each and every denomination is more than welcome to share the joy and festivities with the members of Temple Beth Shalom.

suddenly. Interment took place in Portland. My sincere condolences to you Rose, which also proves a point. Never put off what one can do today for tomorrow. Had I stopped in when I told you I was going to, I would have met your mother.

Get well wishes to Adele Stevens who is not feeling up to par.

Aside to Bess Rosenberg: That card was just too much, but my feelings are the same as yours.

If you are not getting the Las Vegas Israelite, perhaps your address is incorrect. By giving the editor a call, Jack Teil at 870-1255, he will see to it that you get a copy of this, the finest Jewish newspaper in Nevada. That, of course, is my opinion.

Monte Castle is no longer at Stuard's Sahara Men's Shop. Dave Stuard of La Jolla, son of T. W. Stuard, now in town permanently as a partner in the exclusive store for men.

BROTHERHOOD

Participating will be Father Patrick Toomey of St. Viator Church, guest panelist; Rev. M.D. Bennett, Zion Methodist Church, who will deliver the invocation; Mayor Oran Gragson, Brotherhood Proclamation and Rev. Roger Sawyer, Benediction. The Temple Choir will chant brotherhood songs, led by Cantor Joseph Kohn. B'nai B'rith Girls will serve refreshments and A.Z.A. Boys will be ushers. All are invited.

Get well wishes to Harry Wallerstein. By the time you read this Harry will be home, so send the cards there.

Birthday wishes to Barbara Greenspun, Alice Quertz and Allan Steinberg.

LIBRARY

For the present, the library will be open on Sunday mornings from 9:30 to 12:30, whenever Sunday School is in session and also on Monday evenings when adult Jewish Education courses are being offered.

At this time we would like to acknowledge the Patrons of the Library and those who have worked long hours to make this opening possible: Patrons are Mr. & Mrs. Herb Roussio, Mr. & Mrs. Art Marshall, Mr. & Mrs. Abe Saltzman, Mr. & Mrs. Louis Kravitz, Mr. & Mrs. Will Schwartz, Mr. & Mrs. Harry Mack, and Mr. & Mrs. Fred Weisman.

Organizations that have given financial assistance are: Sisterhood, Jewish Center Social Club, Jewish War Veteran's Auxiliary, B'nai B'rith, and Hadassah. Credit must also go to a dedicated group of women who make up the Library Committee. The following women worked through many obstacles to make the Temple Beth Shalom Library a reality: Florence Pollak, Muriel Stevens, Evelyn Feinberg, Debra Kass, Dot Tuchman, Ruth Speiser, Sheila Wolfe, and Adrienne Netherton. Anyone interested in working in the library or contributing to this worthwhile endeavor, may contact the Temple office.
