

HELENE STADLER IN VEGAS

Congratulations and best wishes to Joe and Bess Rosenberg on 33 years of wedded bliss. Bess is now president of the Rose de Lima Hospital auxiliary and busy getting the Mardi Gras in shape. Gals get these in shape. Gals get those tickets moving.

Mrs. Brian Cram (Terri Moss) celebrating her birthday and waiting for the birth of their number 3 child. Good luck and your card was sure thoughtful, thanks.

Pretty Linda Rabin, the daughter of Hickey and Ann, in town to spend the week end and introduce a dear friend of hers to her folks.

Hadassah meeting Tuesday afternoon 1 PM at the Temple Social Hall. Youth Aliyah film will be shown and refreshments will be served.

Mr. & Mrs. Max (Ronnie)

Abrams are at home in Sherman Oaks, Calif. Ronnie is the daughter of Nat and Sylvia Hart of our fair city.

Close friends of Mr. & Mrs. Sam (Nettie) Feinstein were indeed shocked to learn of his sudden and unexpected passing while at work (Stardust Hotel) last Tuesday morning. Being residents of Vegas the past 6 years, he and his wife Nettie made innumerable friends. He resided at 3064 Kishner Drive. His widow, Nettie, found comfort in knowing Sam had as many friends as he did. Sam's sisters, Doris Feinstein, Rose Berkowitz and Ida Feinstein all of L.A. and his two brothers Isaac and David from Charleston, S.C. attended the funeral and comforted their sister-in-law as best they could. Rabbi Gold & Cantor Kohn conducted the service and interment took place in the Palm Mausoleum. What can one say at a time like this? God give you all the strength to put up with this great loss.

For you gals who have trouble putting on your make up because you can't see as well anymore, Zellos Beauty Shop, is a first. They have the prettiest and smallest eyeglasses to help you do just that. They come in gold and silver with matching case. Cost, reasonable. Stop in and ask to see them.

Wonder how many of you felt, if you were one to listen to the National Broadcast of the News, Sunday 11 PM, when all of the nation was told that there was a poverty stricken area in this city of glitter and plenty. How disillusioned many must be. Everyone thought that a Las Vegas was rich and owned a small or large ranch, ha, ha, how many own their own home???

Such a gay group. Evelyn Koransky, Hilda Rubinstein, Dorothy Guberman, Helan and Fred Grafman, their daughter Vicki, all wining and dining with brother and his wife Dr. & Mrs. David (Evelyn) Koransky, in Las Vegas from Hammond, Indiana. They will spend about 10 days in Vegas visiting with each other. This is a closely knit family and one can imagine the pleasures that will be experienced by all when incidents are rehashed. Wonder what memories the youth of today will have as they do not visit relatives as we did as children, enjoy a Sabbath dinner etc.

Polly & Herman Adler enjoying the surf and warmth of Miami Beach, Florida. While there, they will visit with Herman's brother.

SISTERHOOD bingo party, April 4th at Temple Beth Sholem. In order to make this the success that it was, it is imperative that the Sisterhood members be generous and donate one or more books of green, orange or blue stamps so that prizes can be purchased and in doing so all monies received can go to the Temple needs. Sara Saltzman, is in charge of collecting these books. If it would be more convenient for you to bring the book to the meeting or to drop them off at the Temple office do so. Donor credit will be given for each book received. You receive the thanks of the committee.

VI Kaufman back from spending 10 days in Honolulu. VI is secretary to Bob Rice of the Dunes Hotel.

Mr. John Linder, Temple member, was King for a Night at the affair held by the Jewish Council of women. President Mr. Neil (Louise) Leppo and all the members worked hard indeed to make this evening a success. A very beautiful stereo was given as a door prize and this was won by the son of last year's King, none other than Mr. Mel Exber, who is quite charitable in his own way. Mel is part owner of the El Cortez hotel. About 120 attended. Refreshments were served and games of chance were played.

Mr. & Mrs. Neil Leppo showing our fast-growing town to cousins Mr. & Mrs. Marty Leppo from Boston, Mass.

There was quite a turnout for the Royal Musicale and Supper Dance which was held in the Crown Jewel Room of the Dunes Hotel. This was a benefit for Young Audiences Inc. Among those on the receiving line was our own Mrs. Harry (Sonia) Cobb. This was a dress up affair and I will endeavor to mention some of those who attended. Mr. & Mrs. Hank (Barbara, who was celebrating her birthday, too) Green-spun, attorney David Goldwater with his wife Patsy, Mrs. Morrie Kishner, Mr. & Mrs. Herman Kishner, the Herbert Roussos and Arthur Marshalls, Allard Roens, Moe Dalitz, Jerry & Joyce Mack, and Mr. & Mrs. Eugene Osheroff. This was quite a gala evening and everyone but everyone had a wonderful time.

B'nai B'rith Aux. getting ready to plan their convention which will be held in Las Vegas July 19-22. Mrs. Milton OK, convention chairman from grand lodge, along with Mrs. Sylvia C. Lake, the district president, Mrs. Richard Odessky, our local president and Mrs. George Brookman, past president and on the convention board met to discuss same. Eileen, you are another gal that seems to be on every committee including the Grand Jury and I wonder, how do you do it all?

At the Policemen's Ball, and all those in business I am sure bought plenty of tickets, one would have seen the following couples: Bob & Trudy Levoff, Sam and Faye Diamond, Art & Ellie Lurie, Max and Evelyn Goot and the Robert Powells.

Helen & Herman Heinberg have such nachis. Their #3 son Jimmy has been accepted to sing with the United States American Chorus. This group will tour 6 cities and Canada this coming summer. They will also sing at the New York Worlds Fair.

If you have dry itchy skin treat yourself to a bottle of Alpha Kerl (drug store) when you take your bath. Just relax, soap not needed.

Saul Luboff who gave so much of himself and time when he as an active member of the City of Hope, prior to leaving Las Vegas, is now a resident again and very active working for the Heart Fund or any charity that needs help. Good boy, Saul.

Apologies to Edythe and Lloyd Katz and also the Bar Mitzvah Steven on my omission extending congratulations and best wishes to you & brother Jeff in last weeks column. Write up of the Bar Mitzvah will appear in next week's issue.

Good luck to Alvin Benedict who was installed as Chief

Barker of the Variety Club and Mrs. Lester (Elsie) Goldring, as president of the Auxiliary. If I remember, Mrs. Al (Doris) Swartz and her daughter-in-law were installed too. This is the first time that our community has been honored with two active temple members at the helm of this wonderful charitable organization.

Get well wishes to Al Swartz and Freida Isquith, both patients at Rose de Lima Hospital.

Will Schwartz has sure had a time of it. His back has been giving him much pain and so he has been doctoring. He is a patient in the St. Johns hospital and may be there for sometime, so do drop him a card or a cheery note. Only those that have been hospitalized or shut in can know what a wonderful feeling it is to be remembered.

Sarah Feldman, Helen Heimberg, Sara Saltzman, Ceil Fisher, Betty Shatz and Ann Moskowitz were hostesses recently and served lunch so that they can raise money for their donors and in turn help the Sisterhood fund. The crowd was disappointing. Here is hoping the hostesses will not be discouraged from trying again. Door prizes were won by Ann Rainer, Ann Ahlholzer (she always wins, and I would like to know what she does before coming to any affair) and Lil Kronberg.

The Weiss family have many birthdays in February and so, Happy Birthday to Curtis, Calvin and Max.

Aside to Sylvia and Dave Sirota: Have a regards for you from Mr. & Mrs. Rose (Phil) Berkowitz, Phil is Freddie's brother, a good friend of yours.

Dr. Morris Landy, Nettie Freinstein's brother from Bethesda, Maryland and her sister, Mrs. Samuel Bear from Cleveland, Tanta and Uncle Lewis Landy from Phoenix, Arizona were among the family that gathered to comfort Nettie on the passing of Sam.

If you haven't sent in your money for the subscription to the Las Vegas Israelite I will be more than happy to pick it up. Just call.

Doc Knoller (Las Vegas Bootery) resident for many years was stricken with a coronary attack the other day. I am very happy to report that Doc is holding his own. He is in the Las Vegas Hospital. No visitors other than the immediate family. Best wishes for a speedy recovery, Doc.
