

Only in Vegas By Helene Stadler

At the Brotherhood dinner the other evening (Natl. Conference of Christians and Jews) Jerome Mack, NCCJ State Chairman presented Robert Keyser (my friend for 22 years), Pres. DeLuca Importing Co. and Melvin E. Moss, Exec. Vice Pres. of First Western Savings and Loan Corp. and past president of Temple Beth Shalom, with awards for outstanding leadership in the initial organization of the Las Vegas NCCJ chapter.

That was quite a sermon our Rabbi gave February 19th. I believe it should be repeated so that many more of the congregants should know how our Rabbi feels. Or better still, why not have it printed in the most widely read Jewish paper in the state of Nevada? Will you give our editor Jack Tell permission, Rabbi?

If anyone knows how to make a perfumed candle, please let me know. Thanks.

In order for many of the Sisterhood members to meet our Rebbitzin, a number of teas will be held in various homes on a Sunday. Invitations will be sent so watch for it.

Sylvia Solomon and Freida Soskin enjoyed the relaxing atmosphere of Palm Springs.

Please turn in your stamp books so that prizes will be able to be determined for the one and only Bingo Party sponsored by Sisterhood on April 4th. Sara Saltzman is the collector of these gems. Don't laugh, the gals would rather part with something precious than a stamp book.

Irving & Esther Corbin have gone native and are touring the Hawaiian Islands.

Ada Ellenson and Etta Harmell had their cars damaged while they were parked on a lot in a shopping center. Incidentally Thanks Mucho Ada for your thoughtfulness.

To Fay Glazier, Margo Horwitt and Mary Schaffer, belated happy birthday.

Ida and Al Winnick visited in Puerto Rico. Can be you may become residents?

Leah & Al Foster making plans for visiting Japan, the first break they can get away from the business.

Anniversary bouquets to Cantor and Wila Kohn, Sadie & Frank Bovino and Erna & John Grana.

Heartfelt sympathy to Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth B. Ostrovsky on the loss of their 2 month old son Benjamin.

If you are having any problems with your television set, call Lou's TV color and service station. It's the best.

Tony Gee, recently arrived from Hong Kong, is at Bolland's Custom Tailoring Shop to design exclusive men and women's exclusive clothing and then make sure the fit is perfect.

Muriel Rothkofs pangroup feted her at a party in the El Morocco and gave her a very beautiful gift for her new home. The Rothkofs will be leaving Vegas very shortly and will become residents of Calif. The table was decorated with miniature moving vans, good luck signs, and pan cards. Those in attendance were the mesdames Pepl Molasky, Sally Buckbinder, Nettie Riff, Trudy Levoff, Ellie Lurie, Mary Lauber and Sara Gibson. Good luck to you Muriel, Bernie and children.

Mrs. Max (Rosa) Chasen, home and well, recuperating from an operation. Let's keep it that way.

THREE GENERATIONS

Lloyd & Edythe Katz had the most beautiful week which started Friday and is still going on at this writing. The occasion was the Bar Mitzvah of their #2 son Barry Steven. Their beautiful home was the gathering place of some 300 friends and relatives who came from Los Angeles, Reno, Miami, Boston, San Francisco and New York City to help this ideal family celebrate this wonderful occasion. A very luscious buffet was set up in their exquisite dining room. The food was so good the caterers had to keep sending out for more. Just about everything to please the palate of everyone there was served. The entire house was in use. The outdoor patio was enclosed with canvas, table and chairs were set up on the beautiful landscaped lawn too. This was usable because of the two giant heaters that kept the patio and outdoor properties heated. A three piece band supplied the music. However, between Grandpa Katz, the Lea brothers, the Sperling boys, there was plenty of melodious music all evening. The blending of voices of the guests etc. (in song) made it even more fraelich. I would like to mention some of the close family and friends so that when Barry reads this in years to come he will know who came from out of town to help him celebrate his Bar Mitzvah. Mr. Richard Rosenthal-NYC, Mrs. Florence Zwieben, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Katz from Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Edward and Brother Bob Lea, long time friends of Edythe and Lloyd, Mr. & Mrs. Robert Kroloff from San Francisco, Mr. & Mrs. Sam Goff--Boston, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gordon from Reno, Mr. & Mrs. Dick Echels from San Francisco, Mr. & Mrs. Paul Sperling from New York City. Barry's cousins Alan and Rebecca (children of Paul and Ruth) joined him earlier in the evening and helped him unwrap many of his gifts. Uncle Stanley was quite gay too, both in celebration of his nephews Bar Mitzvah and his forthcoming marriage to Bilha Locker. Grandma Gertrude Sperling (Edythe's mom) flew in from Miami and Grandpa Ben Katz (Lloyd's father) tsu long yur, he is 87 years young, came in from Los Angeles. He was so happy he said, "It is sinful for one man to have so much happiness". Zul im nich fastuchen (no conorhorra). I must add that the gayety and warmth with which wach guest was greeted was warm and sincere. Edythe just glowed. All invited guests natch were the selection of Edythe & Lloyd and were there for themselves, not because of the position they have in the community nor did they have to be invited for which I say "Bravo".

About 40 additional out of towners cam in for this Bar Mitzvah but due to the space allotted me, I cannot mention them individually.
