Offers Low Calorie Dish

PAT GINN

Ever since the first day it opened in Commercial Center, Pat's Chinese Kitchen has been a favorite haven for exotic foods for most members of our community. On more than one occasion, lunch-time at Pat's has been described as an annex of Temple Beth Sholem. The Cantonese dishes are extraordinary, the service distinctive and the prices reasonable.

Pat Ginn, the congenial proprietor, is constantly striving for new and modern means to please his customers. His latest innovation, after months of research is a fat-free, low calorie Chinese meal, described elsewhere on this page. It has proven so popular, the Israelite is proud to call it to the attention of its readers.

We hope you enjoy this very tasty dinner, and say hello to Pat, a good friend to the Jews of Las Vegas.

Now that it is legal to send Gin Rummy literature through the mails there will be a Gin Rummy Tournament, the NINTH, on March 21-25, 1965. All the strip hotels will participate. Mr. Alfred Sheinwold will again be the official judge and capable Evelyn Shafer will no doubt line up the smiling and capable gals. Registration will take place at the Riviera Hotel which will be the headquarters, March 21 between the hours of 10 AM and 7 PM. Good luck to all entrants.

many friends on the passing of her beloved husband, Sam.

Pat Padratzick feeling under the weather, checked in to the hospital for some tests.

Get well wishes to Dorothy Friedman, who underwent surgery in the U.C.L.A. Medical Hospital in Los Angeles, Calif.

Jean Weiss beaming with joy as she introduces her sister Hanna Moss, visiting from NYC.

Mort Galane's parents, Harry and Sylvia, will spend the better part of a month in sunny Las Vegas avoiding the cold and dreariness of New York City.

Paula & Gary Sheppard, enjoying the refreshments served after the Rabbi's installation.

Lea Pierson looking rather chic with her up do coiffure.

Belated birthday greetings to Nat Hart and Jack Entratter.

Aside to Ada Ellenson: Thanks so very much for the gift. It is something I can use too.

Good luck to Sam and Irene Dvorak. Even though their food shop is now closed, I am sure this will lead to something much finer. Everything happens for the best, always remember that.

Mr. & Mrs. Ben (Mildred) Fullman, who were the lucky ones winning the main prize in the Sahara Hotel drawing not too long ago, put the winnings to good use. Their daughter, the mother of 3 small children, not being able to find an apartment large enough to accommodate them, saw to it that they had a home of their own, with a substantial down payment. This to quote them, made them very, very happy.

Anniversary greetings to Al and Etta Goot, Jackie & Betty Mandel, Bobbie & Irving Fields.

Another first in Las Vegas, when Aaron S. Gold was installed as Rabbi of Temple Beth Shalom in a most impressive religious service. The choir was most ably led by Morry King. The sanctuary and part of the social hall was S.R.O. Rabbi's prayer in front of the altar was from the heart and most touching. AMEN. The women representing Sisterhood wore very beautiful orchids and the Officers and Directors of the Board wore boutonniers.

Everyone seemed to be enjoying themselves and I am sure they will long remember Rabbi Aaron Gold's Installation as Rabbi of Temple Beth Shalom. I don't believe it is necessary for me to tell you how pretty Mrs. Gold (Rita) looked and the happiness she had in sharing this honor with her husband and their 4 daughters.

Condolences to Harry Herst who is mourning the loss of his mother. She was a visitor to Las Vegas on many occasions and made numerous friends. Internment took place in Ogden, Utah. She leaves 5 children and 10 grandchildren.

REMEMBER THIS DATE - MARCH 21, 1965 as the world renowned tenor Cantor David Kusevitsky will give a recital which no doubt will long be remembered. The admission fee is nominal and you will get more than your money's worth. In other cities where the Cantor has appeared tickets started selling at $5, so this is a bargain. If you desire tickets they can be secured at the Temple, Sunday March 7th or call 735-4711, 878-8717 or 384-5070. Sponsors $10.00 general admission which I will repeat $2.00 and students $1.

Long time resident Katie Abraham, a study in contentment after she tasted and finished the delicious cheese cake this past Sunday that was served upon the conclusion of the Installation services in honor of our Rabbi Gold.

The entire community wishing Jean (Harry) Levy a speedy recovery after undergoing major surgery. She is in the Cedars of Lebanon Hospital and cards will be more than welcomed.

Nettie Feinstein would like to extend thanks for the kindnesses shown to her by her

Dearest Jack & Bea:

So done up in this parental preoccupation of bringing up the family and its subsequent little dividends, it just darn slipped my thoughts to laud and applaud the two most wonderful people on their mazedige venture. May this be it - the safe and snug harbor - bringing shining glory of Success for which your enormous talents are so suited and beautiful, beautiful Luck, of which you are most genuinely deserving.

The many nights long years ago we sat in your delicious kitchen (as did hundreds of in-love-with-Bea-and-Jack friends) recounting your praiseworthy deeds, your complete selflessness, your earnest sincerity and very touching humility - such a husband-wife team there never was or could be - the rarity - their happiness comes from others' happiness.

So, with heartfelt and warmest wishes for your due recognition and combined with your very best health may He, the Almighty, sanction his blessings of much Mazel upon two dear hearts and the long life of the Las Vegas Israelite.

With so much love,
Robbie and Goldie
(Goldwasser, New York City)
P.S. I am so happy to be favored with your personal touch newspaper. Robbie.

Editor's Note: Local readers may remember the column we wrote several months back about a Long Island couple who flew out for a weekend in Las Vegas. They invited us for dinner but we insisted on bringing them to Temple Beth Shalom to hear Rabbi Gold's Sermon. "3,000 miles we flew to enjoy the entertainment in Las Vegas," they pleaded, "and you ask us to attend a synagogue?" But they complied and afterwards their gratitude knew no bounds. They agreed our Friday night Service was the best show in town.

Dear Jack:
Good luck.

Dear Mr. Tell:
Thank you for the excellent coverage on the Beth Shalom Library. The Library has had a most enthusiastic welcome by the Jewish Community which I am sure is at least partially due to your coverage.

My husband and I feel you are providing a real service to the Jewish Community. Enclosed please find our subscription fee and our very best wishes.
Sincerely,
Fred & Joan Weisman

Dear Jack:
Good luck.

Dear Jack:
Thank you kindly for sending me the first issue of the Las Vegas Israelite, as well as the No. 2 issue. I enjoyed reading it immensely and you are to be commended for such a fine publication.

I remember when you were located in our area in Reno and Virginia City, and I knew then that someday you would come out with one of the finest most interesting and readable publications in our great State.

May I add my sincere best wishes to the many thousand I am sure you have already received.

Keep up the fine work and the first opportunity I have, I shall drop in and visit with you and your lovely wife.

Sincerely,
Lou Spitz

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Tell:
I thank you very much for your very generous Bar-Mitzvah gifts.
Sincerely yours,
Bobby Katz
