MR. AND MRS. MAX ABRAMS

Since Goldie Blicher had a birthday which was not overlooked, just didn't know, I want to say "Belated Happy Birthday."

I will apprise my readers of the rest of the slate in the very near future. However, a rather early good luck to all of you.

Steve Gold who has reached the age of 21 can now inherit all the monies left to him. Was there? Belated happy birthday to you, and Mike Tell at 20.

Michael Corbin, son of the Irv Corbins, attended the Calif. Optometric Assn. convention in San Francisco. Believe it or not school was closed all week so that the future Optometrists could attend this very important meeting.

Congratulations to Madelyn Serota and Lester Golst on their marriage. May their life together be a very happy one.

The author of Pinnocchio made his boy have a long nose whenever he told an untruth. I wonder what he would have done for someone who is always curious and has to know what goes on if he or she is not told? They are great at asking questions, but don't ask them anything because "za ves in nich," at least so they say. Now, if these people would be sincere it wouldn't be half bad, but the only reason they have to know everything is that they are sick, sick, sick for they are jealous and "fergin" nothing to anyone. They will tell you they are so happy (with a sick grin) etc. etc. but "gleb zur nit." I could know.

It isn't often that one has the pleasure of meeting such a fine couple as Dr. & Mrs. Harry Fingerman, visitors from New York City who are house guest of Julie and Frances Laiken. In their honor the Laikens had a gathering in their new home. Those who had the pleasure of meeting the Fingermans were: Jeannie and Dave Messing, Lil and Jack Laxer, Nat Stadler, Anne & Heiden Ratner, Anne & Sam Pink, Joe and Betty Spindel, Shirley & Art Engler, Paul and Lynn Jacobson, Paul and Deena Wolfsohn, Henry and Lil Kronberg, Shirley & Bernie Weinstock, Lou and Lucille Mack (Lucille was the recipient of an elegant gift from her beloved Lou, which is most flattering, truggezunta hait), Carl Barbalotte, Annette and Danny Goldfarb, Ralph & Ruth Kushner, Oscar and Sara Agron, and yours truly. It was a hamisha gathering and a most wonderful evening.

Get your subscriptions in and so show Jack tell how much you enjoy his paper. (Ed. Note: Read today's editorial and you'll see why this is so important.)

Tip to Pan Players: If you haven't taken advantage already of that beautiful Pan Kit being advertised only to Israelite readers, do so right away. Its over at Market Town Builders, and oh, so reasonable.

So many of us have a problem with the hard water in Vegas. If you have a pitcher or bottle that has lime deposited on its bottom, put some tea leaves in and add vinegar and water. Let set, wash and presto, no more lome.

Harold Harmel (Etta & Larry's shining star) spent three pleasant days with long time friend Joe Kovner from Los Angeles who found the time in his busy schedule to fly his own plane up. Harold and Joe both being handsome must have made many a damsels turn in their direction.

Don't forget the Cantorial concert, this Sunday. Its a must. Mystery: Who has seen Ruth Kushner? Where is she?

Since many of the gals already know that Ruth (Samuel) Speiser will be the Sisterhood president, I guess there is no harm in mentioning same in this column.

Thanks to all the men and women that worked to make the Men's Club Gin Rummy Tournament the success it was. Harry Herzog, and Mike Katz were in charge of the distribution of the tickets. More in next week's column.

RONNIE CLAIRE HART, DAUGHTER OF NAT AND SYLVIA HART OF LAS VEGAS, AT HER MARRIAGE JAN. 24 TO MAX ABRAMS, OF SHERMAN OAKS, CALIF.

April 4th the Sisterhood Bingo Party. Please turn in one stamp book any color, so that prizes can be gotten. $2.00 donor credit will be given for each book turned in. This is usually a fun evening, so plan on being there. Play starts at 8:30 PM at Temple Beth Sholem and for $2.00 donation you can play all evening. There will be a noninal charge for additional cards, but then your chances are so much the better for winning purposes. Bess Schwartz is the Bingo charman, Etta Harmel co chairman and Sara Saltzman, stamp book chairman.

Millie Scott and Cell Shavinsky underwent thorough check-ups. Both are home and awaiting the reports. Here is hoping you both get a clean bill of health.

Bill and Lee Kozloff, former residents of Vegas and now residing in Aruba, are excitedly expecting a Kozloff heir.

Its a medala (girl) for those that don't understand my so called Jewish expressions, for Tony and Eleonore Grasso (formerly Roth, Jack Entratter's girl Friday). This is their first child and knock on wood, a beautiful girl with her daddy' coloring which many of you know to be dark. Dawn Grasso has a full head of curls and gorgeous dark blue eyes. May I, through this medium, wish the new daddy and mother the best of luck with this bundle of joy and good health always. Pennie Levy who has been so very close to the Grasso will undoubtedly be the God-mother.

Happy birthday greetings to Louise Leppo, Vi Kaufman, Susan Hope Steinberg, Bobby Feinberg, Jody Irwin and Saul Saperow.

Time goes quickly. The 21st will be one year that I am a blonde and I haven't found it to be much of a chore at all. So gals if you are thinking of becoming a different shade do so. All you need it time and money but its worth it, if it lifts your ego etc.

Frieda and Frank Soskin, who always have a house-guest or two, will find themselves without any when Frank's tanta leaves for her home in Cleveland. On their way back to Cleveland, long time friends of the Soskins Mr. & Mrs. Bowman Miller, stopped in our fair city to spend a few days with them.

Rabbi Gold is preparing a bulleting which will have all the instructions for a "Do it yourself Seder," followed by two pamphlets which will be available to all members of the congregation, and to anyone of the Jewish community at large.

Ruth and Henry Feink had a new baby girl born to them - name is Jacqueline Ann - born Jan. 27th. Mazel-tor.

Looks like everybody is getting married this year. Mel-Aire Bridal Shoppe is readying 96 gowns for weddings through September.

Enit Zumar, in order to make her donors is selling raffle tickets so that the winner can have her portrait painted. A wise investment. Enit please put a ticket aside for me.

Barton Passover Candy and Macaroons will be sold by the B'nai B'rith Girls and A.Z.A. Boys. Call Jeanie Kronberg for orders. Would advise you place your order early as the quantity is limited. 735-4067.

Is the Joe Chenin who opened up a liquor store with a partner on Boulder Highway the Dr. Joe Chenin, Dentist that we all know? If so, good luck.

Gals please get your stamp books to the center or get in touch with Sara Saltzman. Time goes quickly and many prizes have to be secured in order to make it most attractive. Bingo party takes place April 4th.

Happy birthday greetings to Mike Gordon, Sophie Katzman, Ann Nosanchuck, Oscar Agron and Stan Irwin.

Queen Bess Rosenberg did a stupendous job. As always, when committees do not function, the president takes over and helps wherever she is needed. I am referring to the Mardi Gras social for the Rose de Lima Hospital which is held every year.
