

Only in Vegas

By Helene Stadler

Sara Agron and Sylvia Hart got together and had a gathering of the gals on their Pram lists last Thursday evening in the Agron newly decorated home. Sylvia who is a sensational cook made the goodies, and Sara helped too. They entertained about 25 gals. Did they have a ball, don't ask? Oscar who was home for a little while made like a bartender. To prove the evening was a success 4 new members signed up and two others are potential members. I am beginning to understand why Hadassah has been the success that it is and will continue to be so only because each and every member puts herself out to see that one is made comfortable, be it at meetings or at the informal gatherings that the Prams hold so often. Other organizations take heed. Sisterhood was one that used to practice this method but for some reason discontinued this and I feel confident that the incoming president Ruth Speiser will give Sisterhood the shot in the arm it so badly needs (socially) because she is so well liked and so dedicated.

Sylvia and Sam Solomon drove their son to Phoenix and continued on to Mexico where they will do some deep sea fishing. Never knew Sylvia was interested in that sport.

Ruth Bartnof became the 300th paid up member of Hadassah. Not bad for an organization that is a little over 1 year old.

Because of Ann Walker, Hadassah women were honored this past Monday evening. They met Dr. Max Shapiro, renowned Periodontist, who had recently returned from a trip to Israel and being so interested in Hadassah he took the time out from his very, very busy schedule to come to Vegas. He resides and practices in Los Angeles. He brought his own equipment (slides and screen) so that he could show the gals some of the places in Israel including of course the medical and dental buildings that Hadassah contributes so much to. Dr. Shapiro did his own commentary and later answered all questions including some on Periodontology (treatment of gums). Since I would like to show my thanks for your subscription to this paper, I will let you in on a secret. Dr. Shapiro will be practicing in Las Vegas about twice a month, with offices in the Sands Hotel. This will prove a wonderful convenience for one who needs this particular type of treatment and will not necessitate traveling to Los Angeles. Not too many dentists know how to treat the gums where there is infection and because of this many loose their teeth. If gums are healthy they in turn mean healthy teeth. So in brushing or cleaning your teeth after meals, pay special attention to the gums and gum line. Massage thoroughly.

In May, Al's and Tilly's Custom Tailors & Dressmakers will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary. Sew what's new? (They're not only swell folks - but excellent tailors.)

Thank you Mildred Fullman for that very pretty hat. My apologies to you and your hubby. The house they helped get was for their son and his family not the daughter. Although through marriage they have gained a daughter.

Albert and Ida Winnick showing their machatenista our fabulous city. The in-laws are Ales and Regina Friedman who reside in Southfield, Mich. The Friedmans spent better than a month here and missed all that miserable weather back home. Could be they too will become residents of Vegas?

Please send in your check for subscription to this wonderful, enlightening, paper. Or, I will be more than happy to pick it up if it will be more convenient. Thanks.

Surely whoever said this has to be kidding. "Some of the gals are getting too old to work in organizations." After all, who but the old members have been and are still doing the work? By old, I don't only mean in age, but in numbers of years one has belonged to any one group. I have yet to see any committee function without some oldies on the committee. True, the new members are all fired up but most of them take office & committeeships for glory's sake, and in the last moments they call for HELP.

Condolences to Mrs. Carl (Fran) Cohen on the loss of her brother who resided in the mid-west.

Lil Miller, Lil Phillips and Sylvia Hart were nominated to be on the nominating committee for Hadassah. They will represent the lay members.

Ida Winnick was the lucky one at the Hadassah meeting, as she had the raffle ticket which won a pair of shorts for her.

Frank Dase, the older of the Dase children, helped out at the Temple Sunday and Monday evening in order to make some change for spending money.

Mrs. Allan Wiener

KATHLEEN SIROTTA, DAUGHTER OF DAVE AND SYLVIA, AT MARRIAGE JAN. 16 TO ALLAN WIENER.

Wonder how many times Jackie Leonard is told that his pretty spouse Janie looks like Pennie Levy. After spending a short time in NYC (vacation) bet he is glad to be back in Las Vegas.

REMINDER: Hadassah Donor Party will take place April 29th, Thursday evening at 9 PM. There will be cocktails, dinner and a show. Awards, too, will be given that evening. Want to have fun? Erna Grana who is in charge of the entertainment is looking for gals to partake in the skit, so why, if you have a little time, don't you call her and say "Yes"?

Rehearsals are a lot of fun and when the time comes for the actual show, this is even more fun and a most gratifying sensation when it is all over. In order to attend, all you have to raise is $35.00. Marlene Kirshenbaum and Dorothy Tuckman had a donor party and both raised their donor money. They sold raffles and charge was a minimum amount to come. Pat Freidkin won the prize which was a lovely watch on a chain, and everyone who attended had a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. Hyman (Joann) Wiener, entertaining dear friends, Ann Hader and her mother from New York City. JoAnn is sure a worker be it Sisterhood, Hadassah or the P T A. Just ask her and she cannot say "No."

Men's Club had a fairly good turnout for their Gin Rummy Tournament. Phil Galt and Dave Schneider, being on the same team split the top prize. Ben Jacobs and Irv Levine came in third and fourth. If I remember didn't Irv Levine come in the money last year too? I know Freida Soskin beat out Max Goot. Did the gals do the same to the other top notch Gin Players? Guess so, as they weren't in the top four. Better luck next time to all gin players.

Dave Bliss on way to join his bride who left for Miami a few days previous. Who wouldn't with a wife like Rita?

Nat Stadler spending his vacation in San Francisco. He had quite a week entertaining his nephew and neice from N.J. Incidentally, his nephew Henry Feldman is now in Palm Springs, Calif. attending a convention for insurance salesmen who have sold over $1,000,000 in insurance. Henry is one of the youngest in the company (Metropolitan) and perhaps in the country too, to ever do such a selling job.

Welcome to Esther Sherman a former resident of Granite Park, Calif.

Hadassah is quite proud of their idea for PRAMS. There is a possibility that other chapters will pick this up and of course this is wonderful publicity for Las Vegas, Nev. and I am sure president Madelyne Posin is quite proud of this accomplishment.

A Square Dance will be held in Temple Beth Shalom social hall April 3, 9 PM. A late supper will be served.

Donation $2. and it is being sponsored by the Jewish Social Adult group.

Hadassah Nearly New shop is badly in need of dresses, utensils or anything that is saleable.

Wanna make Alice Querze's eyes light up? Ask her how Joshua and Paula are feeling. They are her two grandchildren living in Florida with Alice's daughter, Barbara. She and hubby Bob, will bring Alice another bundle of joy any phone call. Daughter Renee here, is also expecting.

Why aggravate about a TV on the blink? Call Lou at 642-4871. He made Jack Tell's broken down set like new. Reasonable, too.

Yale & Toby Cohen spending a week in Florida.
