RIGA JEWS GET SOME MATZAH

NEW YORK. (JTA) -- The Jewish community in Riga has started baking matzoh in an oven in the courtyard of the synagogue there, it was reported here but the quantities being baked are severely limited because of technical problems and a long delay in getting permission from the authorities.

Local officials repeatedly refused permission which was finally granted after intervention from Moscow. The delay means that many Riga Jews will not have matzoh. Matzoh baking in Odessa started Purim eve after repeated refusals in that city too.

it be in politics, in civic ventures or in religion.

Because he has always given of himself unstintingly, because his personal life and private business always was subject to his devotion to civic and community affairs, because he always had time, effort and money for his responsibilities as a Jew, Levy has earned a reputation of decency, fairness and honesty, second to none in Southern Nevada.

JEWS SUPPORT NEGRO RIGHTS

NEW YORK. (JTA) - Fresh expressions of Jewish support for the Negro battle for voting rights, much of it geared to the historic Freedom March in Alabama, was recorded from many communities.

A delegation of Massachusetts rabbis, led by Rabbi H. Bruce Ehrmann, flew to Alabama to join the march. Orin Lehman, secretary of the American Jewish Committee, headed a delegation of the agency's members and staff which went to Montgomery. They took part in the final leg of the march to Montgomery, the state capital. Mr. Lehman is a nephew of the late New York Govern-nor and Senator Herbert Lehman, whose family originally settled in Montgomery. Nearly 100 officers and members of the American Jewish Congress from all sections of the country responded to a call from Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., to join the Freedom March.

The Union of Orthodox Jewish Congregations of America announced creation of a special committee on human rights with the immediate aim of aiding Negroes in all parts of the country. In announcing the special committee, president Moses Feurstein said three members went to Alabama

CHORUS OF 35 SINGING CHILDREN, AGE 7 TO 12½

JCSC SQUARE DANCE SAT. NT.

Mr. A.B. Cooper, caller for the Atomic Sights Square Dance Club, will be the caller for the Jewish Center Social Club's square dance and sing-a-long. A late supper and cold brew will be served. Donation will be $2 per person for members and $3 per person for non-members.

Remember the date, tomorrow, Saturday, April 3, 8:30 PM, at Temple Beth Sholom.

For further information, call Bea Katz at 735-8065.

After months of rehearsal under Cantor Joseph Kohn, the long awaited first public appearance of the Junior Choir of Temple Beth Sholom will be seen and heard at tonight's Friday Services.

Thirty two children, age seven to twelve and a half, who have been taught to sing in chorus, are well versed in all the religious psalms necessary for the traditional Services in addition to many liturgical and English numbers they undoubtedly will render at the Oneg Shabbat.

Many of the little voices you will hear tonight will soon become part of the Intermediate Choir of older boys and girls and undoubtedly some will emerge at a future date as full fledged members of our Adult Choir.

Hearing and seeing them on the Bemah the first time could very well be an experience of great pleasure to all who attend. Services commence at 8:30 p.m., and as usual, all are welcome to be present so that the children may be enjoyed and the parents congratulated.

Temple Beth Sholom is located at 1600 E. Oakey. See you there.
