COLONIAL HOUSE

Did you ever bundle your family in a car and drive for miles to a restaurant you thought had good food and later discover the best meals were being served right in your own neighborhood? It happened to us.

We must have passed the Colonial House on the Strip a thousand times looking for a good place to eat and while we were never in any doubt about the quality of the food, from its reputation, we had some qualms about it being a big, gaudy place inside with outlandish prices--until we found out.

If your dining pleasures would be enhanced in a quiet cozy, intimate atmosphere, you'll find the Colonial House, seating but 42, a treat to your desire. If your palate is pleading for the finest quality of eatables, the choicest cuts of meats, the freshest of vegetables, accompanied by appetizing service, you'll be at home in the Colonial House. If you're looking for a simple menu with wholesome suggestions the Colonial House is your next stop. Most amazing, prices for a complete dinner, from fresh fish delicacies to rare steaks, start at $2.50.

You can believe the motto, "As Good As Money Can Buy" because it is made by Dave Bliss, proprietor of the establishment. They're not just idle words, either. Every dish is prepared by Jack Rhodes, who has been a chef for 35 years, many in the finest kitchens of America. That service is no exaggeration either. Maitre d' Angelo Frapizio has catered to the world's most famous in Paris and the top spots in the nation. Sounds interesting, doesn't it? Quality and class at a reasonable price. At the subdued, reserved bar, Max will mix a drink for 50 cents.

Try it next time out. Colonial House opens at 5 every evening, until midnight, except Saturday, 2 a.m. But take a tip. A phone reservation, 735-8222, might be a good idea.

And by the way, the Rebel Room is always available for parties up to 60, with no charge for the use of the hall, thanks to Dave Bliss. See you there.

KILLED 6,500

BERLIN, (JTA) -- The West Berlin Prosecutor's Office announced that four former SS officers who served in Nazi killer commando groups, in German-occupied Europe, have been arrested and charged with complicity in the murder of at least 6,500 Russian Jews and Gypsies. The men are all employed in West German industry.
