

"I DECLARE" by Claire Dase

Congratulations to Alvin Levy, son of our own Harry, he just passed his Real Estate exams, and expects his license at any moment.

Another little one missed by name, TerriJ Sugarman, my apologies.

From the mouths of babes, etc., Alice Querze happened to cut out the little excerpt written about her eyes lighting up when she mentioned her grandchildren," she mailed same to Florida and received the following command: "Josh, all of five, wants his Granny to come back soon and show her how she does it, because he didn't notice it the last time she visib2'...

The Dase family send their sincere and hearty passover greetings to their many friends, and to the Jewish community at large. To their many non-Jewish friends, a happy Easter.

Don't forget Passover is the time for Giving, please, any donations, however small, are entirely welcome, send them c.o. Rabbi Gold, and he will disburse them in the correct places. This is a Mitzvah, be one of those to help.

Those who know and enjoy Irene Dvorak's Chopped liver, she'll be glad to make it for you for the holidays, just call her and she'll give you all the information.

Congratulations to Barbara Diamond, she had twelve entries in the Home show, and walked away with NINE blue ribbons.

Hear that my fellow fourth estater, Helen Stadler, was quite badly bitten by a dog this past week, in fact it incapacitated her. Here's hoping for a speedy recovery.

The hazards of football was proven this week in the Dase home when Frank took a bad tumble, which called for a doctor's attention, plus a limplike "Chester." Won't be playing for a while...

Schiffman's just back from a convention in San Francisco. Not only are they impressed with all it has to offer, they themselves were goodwill ambassadors from Las Vegas, and according to reports have put us on the map, being the only representatives from this state. They added that they have come back brimfull of ideas for the advantage of all of the community who are among their many clients.
