

Only in Vegas

Ida Star says that her husband is the handsomest pawnbroker in town and so Bob Powell, you have competition. Not knowing Mr. Star, I cannot judge at this time. But in any event you both must be very handsome.

Caryle Bock a former eastern resident sure likes living in Las Vegas.

The Laxers and Messings were proud spectators as they watched their cousin Dr. Mortimer Weiss from San Francisco be inducted as a Fellow to the International College of Surgeons. This ceremony took place in the Gold Room in the Convention Center. Needless to say the doctor's wife, Sylvia, shepped as much nachis as the rest of the party, and beamed with pride, for this indeed is a great honor.

Correction for the Men's Club Bulletin, which announced that Robert Schiffman's Bar Mitzvah is May 15. It will take place June 19.

Look for the Hadassah Donor Dinner write up in next week's column.

Mazel Tov to Mr. & Mrs. Same Rice on their 40th Wedding Anniversary. Many more.

The manicure for 50 cents at Beauty by Heck went over so big the special is being extended for another month. Take advantage.

Mrs. Morry (Judy) Matorium, now employed by Ivan Annenberg thoroughly enjoying the advertising business. Judy & Morry are expecting an heir in the fall.

Our heartfelt sympathy, and many friends of Art Lurie join me in these sentiments. Art's dad, Ben, who was a frequent visitor to our town was fatally injured in an automobile accident in Los Angeles. The culprit was a hit and run driver.

Kay and Harry Wallerstein's grandson, David, who was recently Bar Mitzvah certainly has a sense of humor. I refer to his thank you notes.

Must comment on the good work that is being done community wise by the (Aux.) Jewish War Veterans. During Passover week they distributed baskets to the needy Jewish families. This group also brings aid to children regardless of their faith. Meetings are held at Temple Beth Shalom, 1600 East Oakley Blvd. at 8:30 PM on Wednesday evenings, once a month. If interested call Mrs. Debra Kass 878-2657 for further information.

The Rabins were in the news very much so this past week. Mother Ruth (Irving) was the Hadassah woman of the month and daughter Sandy who resides in Los Angeles may have a children's book published. This comes as no surprise to me as I have been telling Sandy to write. Her style makes most enjoyable reading and if terms can be ironed out with the publisher, look for many more children's books by Sandy Rabin.

Nettie & George, Riff enjoying their grandchildren. They reside in Van Nuys, Calif. George is a VIP at the Stardust Hotel.

Gert & Jerry Zarowitz are busy, busy, busy since their daughter will be saying "I DO" very shortly. Nuptial rites will take place in New Orleans.

Ida Gibrich & Pauline Shlisky thoroughly enjoyed their visit to San Francisco.

Boss Jack & Bea's daughter-in-law, Rita Tell, had a happy birthday. Incidentally she, hubby Don and daughter Bonnie will be leaving from New Jersey for good next month. They'll be in Vegas for a while, then L.A.

Elections are over and the new officers for Sisterhood are as follows. I take this opportunity to wish one and all a most successful year in both membership, friendship and financially as well.

Mrs. Mel (Judy) Golden visiting her family and Mel's in Boston, Mass. and will then continue her trip by going to the Bahamas to meet Mel.

Sylvia Sirota and her mother are in town. Mrs. Snyder has not been feeling at all well and so Sylvia will take care of her until such time that she is able to return to Los Angeles, where Mrs. Snyder resides.

Want white clothes? Just add some Sal Soda to the water and see clothes that sparkle. Even your colored clothes come out much brighter.

Condolences to Dr. Harry Fightlin on the passing of his father Bernard. Internment will take place in Meridan, Conn.

Blanche Goldstein now living in Las Vegas, regrets that she has so little time to get around now that she is working. Blanche used to live in Vegas years ago.

Rose Ungerleider doing nicely after undergoing optical surgery. She thanks you all for the many good wishes.

Edith and Mark Bravo celebrated a simcha. Their daughter Stephanie married Patrick Stamigan in New York City. Stephanie is an art student at Pratt Institute, where she met her husband.

Anniversary greetings to Hy and Ann Ratner, Reba & Charles Isler. This incidentally is Reba's Birthdate too, and to Tillie & All Lutter. May you all thoroughly enjoy this date which got you started on a wonderful life together, may it always be so.

Birthday wishes to Jackie Heller, Mollie Pollin, Arlene Marck, Susan Baller, Louise Nosanchuck and Wilma Stone.

Get well wishes to Jules Newman.

Bea Fields from Liverpool, England and now a resident of Las Vegas has joined the many residents in bragging about our fine weather (most of the time).

Lucilee Mack underwent hand surgery to correct an injury she received many years ago in an automobile accident.

Fran Cohen will be at the helm of the Hadassah group. Those gals working with her will be Reva Schwartz, Ann Rabin, Ann Walker, Marlene Kirschbaum, Lil Miller, Rose Rich and Harriet Margulies.

If any one was surprised, I'll bet Fay Diamond could hardly believe her eyes when Lea Matorian paid her a visit.

Someone must be kidding. I never knew Ruth Rabin was an adept water skier. If so I know someone who is interested in selling their brand new water skis and a musician has an idle harp for sale.

I wonder how many of you are aware of the work the B'nai Brith organization does? Without the Anti Defamation group going to bat for the public in many instances, we would not be able to go and do many of the things we do, and yet -- so little is done, for B'nai Brith in Las Vegas. Wake up joiners. Charity starts at home and United States is your home . . . BB needs you and you need them.

Glad to hear that gals who have lived in town for some time and were inactive re Sisterhood now see fit to become part of the group. So I welcome the following gals and wish them lots of luck and that they enjoy becoming active: Ruth Rosenbloom, Estelle Russo, Dorothy Eisenberg, Anne Pink, Joyce Strauss, Enid Zumar, Frances Laiken, Joan Weisman. Good wishes to all gals on all committees for all organizations.

The pre-school classes will present their annual Mother's Day Program in the Temple Social Hall on Friday, May 7th. All children attending classes will participate. We urge those parents with children ranging in ages from 3-5 years who wish to enroll for the Fall session in September to do so by calling 382-3116 to be assured of a space for the coming year. These classes are non-sectarian but Jewish children are given preference. However, enrollment is usually filled by the time school begins, so act now.

Jeannie and Dave Messing, Al and Etta Goot will be in Mexico by the time you read this.

Dottie Goffstein and Jane Benedict are co-chairmen of "Feed A Child" luncheon today, Friday at the Sands Hotel. For a mere $36.50 you can help a child and enjoy a luscious lunch and an entertaining afternoon.

Doc Stein entertained his Winnie and drinking a toast to her on her birthday. Belated birthday wishes to you.

Ida Grensweig and Esther Engel have to postpone their trip aboard. However, Esther will spend 10 days in Los Angeles with son and his family.
