

JEWISH NEWS BRIEFS

LONDON (WNS) Jewish tourists returning from the Soviet Union reported that Moscow's Central synagogue was jammed with more than 6,000 worshippers during the Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur services, many of them young people.

NEW YORK (WNS) Yeshiva University on October 31 will break ground for a 15-story, $15 million Science Center at its main site in Washington Heights, it was announced here by Dr. Samuel Belkin, University president.

MONTREAL (WNS) More than 1,000 representatives of 220 community organizations serving 5,600,000 Jews in the United States and Canada converged for the 34th General Assembly of the Council of Jewish Federations and Welfare Funds, at the Queen Elizabeth Hotel.

TEL AVIV (WNS) Released government statistics showed that Israel's population passed the 2,500,000 this summer.

PARIS (WNS) Existence of twenty-two Jewish youth clubs in Poland, with a total membership of 1600 boys and girls, was reported in Warsaw by the Yiddish newspaper Flokstimme.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., (WNS) In 1864 the city of Leavenworth was the site of the first synagogue to be erected in Kansas. Now its Jewish community has dwindled to a point of virtual non-existence.

NEW YORK (WNS) The United Hias Service is making every effort to implement the government's program of assisting Cuban refugees to come to the United States.

MELBOURNE (WNS) Moved by a report that anti-Semitic groups were infiltrating churches to spread anti-Semitism, a synod of the Australian Anglican Church adopted a resolution urging all churches in the country to set up programs to combat racial and religious bigotry.

PARIS (WNS) Jacques Barbier, former gestapo collaborator who had been sentenced to death earlier in the year by a French military court for his wartime activities, won a stay of execution when the French court of appeals reversed the conviction on a technicality and ordered a new trial.

TEL AVIV (WNS) Former Premier David Ben Gurion last week celebrated his 79th birthday at his Negav retreat at Sde Boker, where he received members of his family, friends and political opponents. Mrs. Ben Gurion was said to have received thousands of congratulatory telegrams from all parts of the world.

NEW YORK (WNS) Some 215 Jewish leaders from 40 communities in the United States left their homes last week for the eleventh annual UJA study-mission in Europe and Israel, which opened with a conference in Rome.

NEW YORK (WNS) A gift to the Jewish Theological Seminary of America in the sum of $3,500,000 and another to the Mt. Sinai Hospital and Medical School in New York in the sum of $3,000,000 was made here by Albert A. List, noted Jewish philanthropist and industrialist. Born in Fall River, Mass., of parents who emigrated from Rumania, Mr. List said he hoped to make annual contributions of $5,000,000 to his favorite causes.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (WNS) Formal U.N. condemnation of Zionism, along with anti-Semitism, Nazism and neo-Nazism, as a policy of "colonialism and race hatred," was urged by the Soviet Union representation in the General Assembly's Social, Humanitarian and Cultural Committee.

JERUSALEM (WNS) The presence in Israel for resettlement of the former secretary to Moscow's Chief Rabbi Yehuda Leib Levin was made public when it was learned that Mordechai Chazanin, his wife and nine-year-old daughter had been in the country for two weeks.

JERUSALEM (WNS) The World Zionist Actions Committee will hold its next meeting in Jerusalem on January 11-18.

JOHANNESBURG (WNS) A statement by a nationalist newspaper questioning the loyalty of South African Jews met an immediate and sharp retort from the South African Jewish Board of Deputies.

COPENHAGEN (WNS) Planned construction of a $1,000,000 school in Israel in tribute to the Danish people for their efforts in saving the country's Jews from the hands of the Nazis in 1943 was announced here by a delegation of the Israel Education Fund of the United Jewish Appeal following a reception by Crown Princess Margareth at Christianborg Palace, official royal residence.

PHILADELPHIA (WNS) Judge Harry E. Kalodner, a former newspaperman and one of the most prominent members of the Jewish community here, was sworn in as Chief Judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit.

ROME (WNS) In memory of the 2,000 Jews of Rome who were deported to the Auschwitz death camp by the Nazis twenty-two years, President Saragat of Italy on his forthcoming visit to Poland will stop at the site of the former death-factory.

WASHINGTON (WNS) Assistant Secretary of Commerce Eugene P. Foley was reported here by the Washington Post to have declared that some Negro businessmen were harboring anti-Semitic attitudes because of belief that Jewish merchants are "aggressive competitors."

80 At B'nai B'rith Women's Tea for New Members

The B'nai B'rith Women's chapter, held a tea for new members, and prospective members, in the home of Elsie Goldring. Also welcome were old members, who made a small donation for the pleasure of participating. The theme of the afternoon was "Shooting for the Stars". The elegant dining room, was decorated with gold and blue stars, with blue and white centre pieces, and candelabras. The hostesses were dressed as Astronets, and a side room was activated as a launching pad. The program based on this idea, was chaired by Sally Schneider and Margie Felman with her capable assistants, the ladies Lu Freeman, Lucille Brotman (Glad to see you activated again), Bernice Schniffman, Judy Farber, Dolores Goldstein, Judy Seidman, Sylvia Jaffe, Bobbie Turlisky, Ellie Osheroff, Annette Tabic and Gusie Goldstein. Decorations were done by yours truly. Attending the delightful afternoon were mesdames: Florence Vimm, Sally Venger, Hattie Carson, Lillian Greenberg, Trudi Kassel, Sarah Ezor, Mollie Margolies, Ruth Biales, Goldi Dombrik, Elaine Brody, Barbara Thelin, Elsie Retzsky, Mollie Bass, Joanne Weiner, Helen Goldfinger, Pearl Gordon, Lynn Bernson, Shirley Bash, Dianne Bass, Aline-Chick, Norma Shirley, Estelle Levine, Hel-

MEMBERSHIP TEA

The B'nai B'rith Women held their annual membership tea recently at the home of Mrs. Lester Goldring of 558 Ellen Way. Pictured at the tea table are, left Mesdames Herbert Schneider, vice president, programs; Al Felman, vice president, membership; Sam Daze, vice president, ways and means; Lester Goldring, hostess and past president; and Murray Artman, president B'nai B'rith Women.

Review-Journal Photo

en Moss, Fay Glazer, Dianne Kishner, Irma Lee Ross, Sylvia Hart, Lillian Seigel, Ruth Fox, Lee

Harris. Of these, eighteen new members joined during the afternoon. President Toby Artman, briefed those present of the workings of the organization. The overall attendance for the afternoon was 80.

at Ramah, you think of camp and all it represents.

L'hitraot, Walter Ackerman

LETTERS

Dear Jack:

On behalf of the women of the Las Vegas Chapter of Hadassah, I wish to thank you for the recent publicity afforded our first big social of the 1965-66 season. Your kind co-operation contributed immeasurably to the great success of the evening.

Again many thanks.

Cordially,
Mrs. Carl Cohen,
President

Dear Jack:

A delayed holiday greeting with only the best for both you and Bea.

My warmest thoughts to both of you and fond regards from all of us.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kleiman

Dear Jack:

Enclosed is my check for $10.00 in payment for the New Year's Greeting ad.

I understand that is the correct price and I want to thank you very much for reminding me of this special message.

I was in Las Vegas yesterday, just for the finals of the Las Vegas Air Races and I am hopeful that this will become an annual and major sporting event in the city. It really deserves more public support.

I hope all is going well with you and your family.

Best personal regards.

Cordially,
Eugene Murphy

Shalom:

By the time you receive this letter, camp will probably seem far away. Those of you who were at camp in August have been home for almost a month. You're all back in school and involved in the many things that go to make up like in the city. We like to think, however, that no matter how much time has passed since you were

Now Appearing!
Jack Entratter presents

Joey Bishop

Sonnuva Gun—The Son of Fun Returns!

ANTONIO MORELLI AND HIS MUSIC

The most beautiful girls in the west
Two shows nightly 8:15 and midnight

Frankie Randall

RESERVATIONS:

HOTEL: 735-9111 / SHOW: 735-3464-5

Now in the Celebrity Theatre

Mirth
PHIL FOSTER

Melody
JONES
RED NORVO

THE YACOUBIANS

Extra Added Attraction
TRAIAN BOYER
& Mystery

ERNIE STEWART TRIO

PIZZA SANDWICHES • SPAGHETTI • FOOD TO GO
MICHELOB BEER ON TAP
TOWER OF PIZZA
3726 On The Strip
WE DELIVER
Phone 736-3238 — Bobbie & Jasper