

Honor Mrs. Harry Levy

AT AN AFTERNOON TEA IN TEMPLE BETH SHOLOM SPONSORED BY THE NCJW, MRS. HARRY LEVY, SECOND FROM RIGHT, WAS HONORED ON "A WOMAN'S PLACE IS IN THE WORLD" DAY AND RECEIVED A NATIONAL AWARD FOR HER SERVICE IN THE COMMUNITY. THE PRESENTATION WAS MADE BY MAYOR ORAN GRAGSON, ANNETTE TABIC, LEFT, CHAIRMAN, AND MRS. SONIA COHEN, PRESIDENT, LOOK ON.

At the N.C.J.W. tea honoring Mrs. Harry Levy was presented with "A" Women's Place is in the World award, the first to be given by the local chapter. Among the many present were Mayor Oran Gragson and wife Bonnie, Reverend John Peter Lendus, Luna Hope, Roberta Johnson, Dorothy

Laudres, Mary Lou Thomas, Marilyn Flangas, and many others. Wires from Senators Cannon, Bible, Gov. Grant Sawyer, Sydney Whitmore, and many others were read. The acceptance speech was given amidst tears when the Honoree recalled that only seven months prior to that date, she was not positive that she would be among her many friends and family, having to undergo serious heart surgery. Dav Burton and his group played for the occasion, and Annette Tabic chaired the entire affair. President Sonya Cohen and committee members are responsible for a successful afternoon, which will long be remembered. An added bouquet should be given to Annette Tabic for the original poster used during the display. It was concocted in her active mind, and completed by a little Chinese boy, who had the fortitude to overcome a crippling handicap.

SYNAGOGUE CONVENTION

A program to introduce the study of Talmud to the constituency of more than one and a half million members of the Conservative Movement will be launched by the United Synagogue of America at its Biennial Convention scheduled to open on November 7.

The program will be inaugurated on Monday, November 8, when convention delegates will be assigned to five different "classes," each under the tutelage of an eminent Talmudic scholar and each studying a separate aspect of the vast Talmudic literature.

The five-day convention which will be held at the Concord Hotel, Kiamesha Lake, N.Y., will be the United Synagogue's largest in its 52-year history, according to Rabbi Bernard Segal, executive director. Between 1,600 and 1,800 delegates from most of the United States and Canada representing over 800 synagogues are expected to participate.

Forty-five congregations which have affiliated with the United Synagogue since the last convention in 1963 will be formally inducted.

The theme of this year's convention is "The Moral Imperative of Our Times: 'Unless the Lord build the house, Those who build it labor in vain,'" and the keynote address will be delivered by Dr. Israel Kazis, spiritual leader of Temple Mishkan Tefila, Newton, Mass., on Sunday evening, November 7.

Other speakers at the convention will include: Dr. Louis Finelstein, Chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary; Dr. Joachim Prinz, Chairman of the Conference of Presidents of Major Jewish Organizations; Commissioner Sheldon Cohen of the Internal Revenue Service; Prof. Moshe Davis, head of the Institute of Con-
