

"I DECLARE"

by Claire Dase

The Larry Harmel's are having a wild time with unexpected guests. As one can well imagine, a good time is being had by all.

The Senior Citizens, had a tea to interest all service groups in the project "Women's Council". The most wonderful sight was the vast turnout of B'nai Brith members.

Jeff Katz, 16 year old son of Lloyd and Edythe, attending Judson School in Arizona, won Blue Ribbon and Silver Plate at Arizona State Fair riding for Harvard Hills Stables of Santa Barbara.

Terri Seigal, one of the most popular girls at Las Vegas High was selected Homecoming Queen. The swollen chests did not remain in the family alone.

THEN TO SEE THEM RELEASE THEIR ENERGIES with the new Israeli dances they learn, is inspiring and heartwarming. I would encourage every Jewish family in the community, with youngsters from ten to thirteen to have them participate. The summer program already in it's planning stage promises to be an innovation never seen before at Temple Beth Shalom. Don't let your children miss it.
