"I DECLARE"
by Claire Dase

So sorry to hear of the passing of Cele Shavinsky's sister. It has been a series of not too happy times, may this be the last.

Flo Benkrant got her feet wet in L.A., and finished up with bronchitis. Get well soon.

The Levey's and Greensweig's had a houseful over the Thanksgiving weekend. Many more happy re-unions.

Hear that Tillie Lutter's niece, is engaged to Eli Keritne who spent a short time with us at Temple Beth Sholom. Mazel tov to all concerned.

Annette Tabic wishes to extend her thanks for the flowers, cards and contributions sent to the various organizations in lieu of wishing her a speedy recovery.

The cocktail party hosted at the home of the Sam Dvorkaks, by daughter Jackie for the new young adult group just started, was the setting for about 75 persons. It is getting off to a great start, and the basic foundation has been well laid.

If you are in the market for the most delicious chocolates you ever tasted, drop in to the Vegas Sweet Shoppe on Morth 3rd. Yum, Yum.

Each Tuesday at 9:30 p.m. Temple Beth Sholom sponsors a lecture open to the public. The remainder of this semester's cultural programs, presented by authorities are as follows:

- Dec. 7 - Family Dynamics Rabbi Aaron Gold.
 - Dec. 14 - Buddhism
 - Dec. 28 - Christianity
 - Jan. 4 - Family Dynamics (continued) Rabbi Aaron Gold
 - Jan. 11 - Judiasm and the Rabbinic Mind.
 - Feb. 1 - Hinduism
- The series that Rabbi Gold will be presenting on Family Dynamics is similar to the course he taught on that subject at the University.

Special thanks to the following for outstanding efforts put into the recently held bookfair. Mr. Leonard Spiegelgass, guest speaker. Co-ordinator Debra Kass, Program Evelyn Feinberg, Publicity Reba Isler, Decorations, Enid Zumar, Refreshments Rochelle Hornsby, Hostesses Roberta Gang, Sales, Sarah Saltzman, Poster Contest, Florence Pollak. Also to Mr. & Mrs. B. Shindell, Mr. & Mrs. M. Stevens, Janice Berliner, and Marilyn Leidner. It would be remiss not to add thanks to the many that worked with and for the above mentioned.
