"I DECLARE"
by Claire Dase

So sorry to hear Sophie Katsman is sick. Hope she has a speedy recovery.

Joan Wesiman to leave us pretty soon. She will be missed, being an ardent wroker.

So sorry that the Brookman family are having such a tough time with sickness.

Would like to know who it was that gave Brianna a transistor radio for her Bas Mitzvah.

Hope all our women take advantage of the Mint Beauty Salon's special Hanukkah Holiday gift offer to bring a friend absolutely free. Proprietress Vera Naret, who is so actively engaged in our Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary wants all her friends to be acquainted with her beautiful, fully equipped shop on the mezzanine of the Mint. She's got trophy winning operators, Ellen Meyers, former owner of Ellen's in Pittsburgh, and John Myers (no relative) who has worked most beauty salons on the Strip. He's from Chicago's North Shore. The rest is a family affair with daughters Cicky and Eilene, well known in Vegas for years. Drop in and say hello to Vera and while there take a look at the complete line of unusual costume and novelty jewelry at popular prices.

Jack Vodovoz, popular printer around town, would like to hear from friends during his confinement at Community Hospital, San Gabriel, Calif.

There will be another occasion of joy when the Babkis family celebrate the Bar Mitzvah of their son. Many years of joy to you all.

The new young adult group is really under way. They have set up a constitution, and are set to elect officers. They are also planning a dance for December 25th. Details on this to follow.

JOE STEAD, SOFT SELL

Just about a year ago, encouraged by Alex Gold and Martin Black, Joseph Stead first appeared before a television camera.

Today, Channel 13, KSHO-TV, boasts one of the most accepted personalities in the wee hour airwaves, with "Vegas Nite Life" which has captured the listening and viewing audience.

Joe's forte is the "soft sell" and his efforts are paying off, with his show almost continuously oversold.

Joe, 28 and single, is originally from Pittsburgh, of Irish Father and Jewish mother. The Cohen and Kelly parentage is evident in Joe, who never turns down a personal appearance for a worthy charity, regardless of race or creed.

Cantor is starting a choir among the members of Sisterhood. Ann Pink has been appointed to see him and look into this matter.

So sorry to hear of the passing of Reed Whipple's sister. Condolences to the family.

So sorry to hear of the passing of Harry, Joe Shapiro's brother.
