What popular couple were a wee bit embarrassed the other evening when they attended a formal dinner in rather casual attire?

Mr. & Mrs. Yale (Toby) Cohen gave a very beautiful (and fun) dinner with violin music to enhance the occasion for Louise Tucker in honor of her birthday at the Desert Inn Penthouse Suite. What with Hanukah so close, Louise sent for some packages that she had wrapped to be distributed to her friends and did so that evening, much to the surprise of the beautifully dressed gals. Happy belated birthday, Louise.

Jack Hammes head of the Riviera Hotel Employees Association always sees to it that the Tuberculosis Seal drive is enhanced by funds collected by him from the employes in the strip and downtown hotels.

Nancy & Ricki Bodiner, grandchildren of Toni and Irving Braveman, will be traveling alone (plane) from Minneapolis to spend the holiday with their grandparents.

Get well wishes to Dave Greenspan who is now minus his gallbladder. Hope by the time you read this Dave will be up and around.

Bushels of Orchids to Mrs. Herbert Russo (Janie) and her committee for the outstanding job being done regrading the Young Audiences. This group is instrumental in bringing to the elementary schools concerts of good music. Mrs. Lloyd (Edith) Katz serves on this committee as Hostess.

Mrs. (Al) Ruth Levinson had a delicious Luncheon, with most attractively set tables to accommodate her guests, which was given in honor of Mrs. Al (Ida) Winnicks return to Detroit.

ENGAGEMENT

MISS BARBARA PASNIK

Mrs. Jeanette Pasnik and Mr. Max Pasnik of Las Vegas, Nevada announce the engagement of their daughter Barbara Jill, to Dr. Sam Strum, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Strum of Holliswood, New York. Miss Pasnik is now attending the Metropolitan Junior College of Kansas City.

July 4 has been selected as the wedding date.

Mich. where they will be near their children and grandchildren. About 25 mesdames attended. Ida was gifted with a gold, ruby and sapphire charm.

There was also a no host couple dinner party held in the Tropicana Hotel Gourmet room. Attending were Mr. & Mrs. Bernie Homberger, Alex Homberger, a house guest of the Hombergers from London, England, Mr. & Mrs. Charles Shaw, Paul Meltzer, Harry Herzog, Irving Braveman and the Al Levinsons. A very beautiful antique bedroom clock set in a velvet frame was given to the Levinsons and a gift from this group. Good Luck Always.

Having trouble getting your dishes and glasses to sparkle even tho you do not have soft water in your house? Get some Finish and Solid Jet Dry. The later remains in the machine and is good for 75 or more dishwashings. Inexpensive and yet so worth while. Try it. Most of the markets have these products.
