ATTENDANCE

HARRY AND MARGE

There may have been others, but from our observation, Harry and Marge Herzog have been the most consistent attendants at Friday evening Services at Temple Beth Sholom. This attractive couple is not only deeply devoted to each other but are dedicated members of our Faith. It's the Herzogs who set the example for the rest of us to follow and who are the concrete pillars in the foundation of our Jewish Community.

Gone But Not Forgotten

Nate Mack, founder and one of the most poignant contributors in the development of Temple Beth Sholom from its early stages to its present standing, was a pioneer in the development of the Jewish Community. His passing left a void that will never be filled. May he rest in peace.

ELEVATED

DAVE

Justice David Zenoff, who deservedly moved up the ladder of Jurisprudence, from District Court judge to Supreme Court, on appointment by Gov. Grant Sawyer. Justice Zenoff, a founder and outstanding member of the Las Vegas Jewish Community, moved his residence from Las Vegas to Carson City. Good luck, and every member of our Faith is proud of you.

HEBREW

ABE

Abe Schwartz, principal of Temple Beth Sholom Hebrew School, has won the confidence and admiration of every parent whose child attends classes. Abe knows his business, he's tolerant, and he's delivering results that have never been matched in the annals of our area.

RECOVERED FROM ILLNESS

ANNETTE

Mrs. Annette Tabc, who works day and night for the National Council of Jewish Women, for which she serves as publicity director, recently spent several days in the hospital. She is fully recovered and is looking forward to next year's activity for her favorite organizations which number the City of Hope, among others.

SID

Sid Peilte, recording secretary of the Temple's Men's Club and one of the editors of that group's fine bulletin, is one of the hardest working members of the Jewish Community. He has been in and out of the hospital several times and, thank God, appears well on the way to recovery. Happy, healthy 1966. Sid, Men like you are hard to find.

JEANNIE

Mrs. Harry Levy, recipient of the Nation Council of Jewish Women's "Woman of the Year" award, is fully recovered from a severe illness. She has long served good and noble causes.

HARRY

Harry Wallerstein, a past Temple president and very active in all Jewish affairs, found himself in and out of the hospital for a short spell last February. It wasn't serious and it didn't last long. He came out chipper enough to take darling Kay on a European jaunt last summer. When a fire left two infants homeless Harry was first to help with a crib and mattress. He's that kind of person.
