

Only in Vegas

By
Helene Stadler

It's a Mahagah to be back in the fold and be able to impart such happy news as the following:

Cupid is shooting the arrows fast and much happiness reigns in the Friedkin home. Patricia and Dick are happy to announce the engagement of her daughter Charlene to Jack Herst, son of Rose and Harry, both families are long time residents of Las Vegas and indeed very good friends. Little did they dream that their children would find each other and yet I bet they were secretly hoping this would happen. Well, Cupid did it for them. Congratulations. An early spring wedding is planned.

FRANCINE

Parents for the first time are Mr. & Mrs. Max (Ronnie Claire Hart) Abrams who have delighted their parents by making them grandparents.

Nat and Sylvia Hart are now grandparents, mazeltov. Leading role was played by daughter Ronnie Claire Abrams assisted by her husband Max. Daughter was born in L.A., where the Abrams make their home.

Frank and Freida Soskin telling their friends about the engagement of their son Mike to Gail Lee Goodman, daughter of Mr. & Mrs. Mike Goodman, 1721 Oakley Blvd. Plans are being made for a spring wedding. Much happiness always.

Francine Greenstein, daughter of Helene Stadler, who will be married to Machael Barry, assistant producer and writer in Hollywood. The marriage will take place in early Fall to culminate a two year courtship. Francine is a dental assistant in Beverly Hills, where she resides.

Condolences to the family of Evelyn Koransky who passed away suddenly and certainly most unexpectedly as she was not ill New Years Eve. She leaves two sisters residing here in Las Vegas, Hilda Rubinstein and Dorothy Guberman, a sister and brother in Los Angeles and sisters and brothers in Chicago. Evelyn was associated with Kays Fabrics, Internment took place in Chicago.

Thanks to Chief Probation Officer Robert E. Mullen, the kids at Child Haven were given a surprise holiday party with entertainers from Alma Dawson and Dorothy Francovich's dance studio.

Kittie Ulnick was a house guest of Lil and Kenny Glick-en.

Talk about surprises!!! The best one was pulled and I mean SURPRISE on Helen and Fred Grafman in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary, when they returned home after spending a few days on the coast to find many close friends and relatives in their home. The party was a gay one and it took a little time for Helen and Fred to get over this unexpected homecoming before they could join in the festivities. The gifts were many and elegant as a silver anniversary should be. Along with your guests the readers of this column too wish you many more shining years together with you and yours.

Kittie Wiener has the traveling bug and so she departs for Hawaii for a ten day vacation. While in Honolulu she will visit with her niece, the former Roberta Gordon, and her family.

Mary Lauber spent the New Year in Santa Monica making like a babysitter which could be and often is, more enjoyable than fighting the crowds on the Strip.

Good to learn that Ruth Borax is busy with the Thrifty Nifty Shop, whose funds are used for charities supported by the women's league of the Church of Truth. Ruth's hubby Don is head of security at the Desert Inn Hotel and he was also a former police chief. That goes back many years before the stupendous growth of Las Vegas. This should give you some idea of how long the Boraxes have been residents of this fair city.

When handsome ein and einysik son of Jack and Selma Jacobson, who is a student (an A) no less, was asked what is the destiny of our United States as you see it, his answer was as follows, "I feel that the destiny of the U.S. lies in the proper training, decisions and actions of future generations. It will be determined by the interest of its citizens in meeting future responsibilities. I hope they will be adequately met.

Goldie Mendelsohn in town to see old friends. Goldie was a resident of many years before she moved to L.A., where she could be with son Bernard, his wife and last but far from least, her grandson.

Good luck to Sally and Mike Gordon on purchasing the Lucky Liquor Store, on Charleston Blvd.

More belated birthday wishes to those Sagitarians: Harriet Margolies, Diana Kishner (who looks so much more attractive as a blonde) Marilyn Resnick, Esther Engel, Babette Fishman, Helene Goldfinger and Mae Diamond.

Belated anniversary wishes to Sandra & Howard Ides and Sig & Blanche Stein.

Talk about shopping, Elaine Turk and Diane Schwartz did OK by themselves when touring the Orient with their money bags (Husbands).

Well now that the old year has gone and a new started all the best wishes to everyone especially good health.

Gerre Conrad 6328 Evergreen, Phone 878-6769, former owner of Conrad's Maintenance and Janitorial Service, also founder of This 'N That Enterprises is a contented lady since she joined Amway, The American Way Association. She feels she has helped to bring "Something new under the sun" to Las Vegas. She's not only selling top-value products and planning for a bigger future... she's helping to run her own organization. An organization that is tops in a highly competitive market. Gerre is helping the homemaker to keep her home Holiday bright and shiny all year long, via a new and easier method with Amway Home-Care products. She is one of 80,000 distributors who have taken the big step in building a new career with Amway.

Four Stars to the guys and gals who formed a Jewish Young Adult group. There are many in this area, and this will be an excellent means of "Getting to Know You". So ---- all those unmarried 18 years or older are WELCOME. Purpose too, to give members a chance to participate in current events, ancient traditions, Jewish culture, religion and ideas. Liason will be Rabbi Gold, Cantor Kohn. Interested? Contact above at Temple Beth Sholom or attorney David Canter, 384-6484.

Belated congratulations to Dr. & Mrs. Mort Batkis on the Bar Mitzvah of their son Melvin.

Aside to Jackie Leonard: Read the paper regularly and you will find my column more often than not. Glad to hear you missed it.

Dr. Reuben and Betty Lockitch greeted and shook hands with quite a number of L.V. residents at a party in his honor at the Dunes Hotel.

Happy birthday wishes to: Stacy Stuts, Susan Laxer, Doris Swartz, Bob Kravitz.
