Belated birthday to Hadassah and all its members for the second successful year of operation. About 350 members, husbands and guests attended the birthday party at Temple Beth Shalom this past Sunday evening. A skit was presented, directed by Erna Grana titled "DIAL H (for Hadassah) wherein the president was murdered, by being hit on the head, and the following suspects were questioned: All this was done musically.

Telephone Chairman, Marilyn Resnick, who is so pretty and has a good singing voice, said she would not have killed the president by hitting her on the head, she would have strangled her.

Past President, Reggie Sickle said she wanted the president to live so that she too could be a past president and suffer the way she did.

President's Best Friend: Ann Ukeiley just wanted to keep the husband from being lonely and so she saw to it that he wasn't. Husband, Dave Burton who certainly did his part very well and always does.

Parliamentary: Lilliam Meyers

Judge: Mollie Nahmias

Mystery was solved when decision was given that the president was not killed. She knocked herself out with her own gavel from OVERWORK. Also taking part were Adair Axler and Etta Harmel.

All food served was home made. Winnie Bedol and Joann Wiener saw to it that the gals did this.

Music was supplied by Dave Burton and his group.

Rabbi Gold, Cantors Kinory and Kohn and Dave all sang together which is always so entertaining and fralich.

Space prevents me from naming all the gals that cooked, etc., but always for an organization affair to be successful everyone does their part.

May the third year be as successful as the first two under the leadership of Madelyn Posin, Past President and Fran Cohen the present president.

GOLDEN WEDDING DAY

Cutting the cake at a buffet dinner are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meisner, as they recently observed their 50th wedding anniversary.

Las Vegans welcome Mr. & Mrs. Morris Spencer former Los Angeles residents who are now making their home in our city. Their son is married to Margie Herzog's niece. Mentioning the Herzogs, they are entertaining Harry's sister Bessie Wohlmuth from Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Well, the packages are starting to be delivered to Winnie Stein and Shirley Co-brink. Must say they did OK when they visited Hong Kong.

In the write up of the Meisner 50th anniversary party:

grand daughter Betty Lou's name was omitted and she is much too pretty to be left out in any write up of such a wonderful blessing. Incidentally, Betty Lou is interested in acting and someday you may see her name in lights. The road is a difficult one and I for one wish Betty Lou lots of luck.

Thank you Evelyn Feinberg for that wonderful picture. The memories of your son's party are still vivid in my mind. How could I forget it. Thanks again.
