Jack & Babe Hammes recently returned from Mexico and San Jose, Peru and look just wonderful. Yep, I guess a vacation, meeting interesting people etc., does one more good than staying home.

Get well wishes to Hy Altman.

Mr. & Mrs. Mike Gold, (KLUC) celebrated their 31st year of matrimony happy as the day they were wed. Many more anniversaries, for two such charming personalities. (Ed. Note: Amen.)

Flora Mason nursing a broken leg from skiing at Lee Canyon. Not only is this sport becoming activated by the school age teenagers, but some adults are beginning to take a liking to it too. Namely, Joyce and Jerry Mack and bet the Hank Greenspuns becoming interested too.

Lynn Nebron helping Dorothy Eisenberg (Paul is the spouse and accountant for Temple) with the heavy mailing that Sisterhood has had of late.

Bar Matzvh mazeltovs to Martin Vodovoz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Vodovoz.

B'nai B'rith Women's cocktail and dinner dance party held this past Sunday was a successful social and financial affair. The home cooked foods were delicious and there was enough of it for second and third helpings. All the gals on the committees worked hard and well together. All chairmans did a stupendous job. The $500 gift certificate was won by Mrs. Esther (Irving) Corben. The $100 Monet watch was won by (the name escapes me). Printing of the raffle tickets was donated by Foxy's and Cragin & Pike Insurance. Many door prizes were distributed to the lucky holders of tickets. Entertainment was supplied by the wonderful Israel group "Ay-alons" now appearing at the Dunes Hotel. They did their entire show which consists of mimicry, dancing, and singing. They received a standing ovation and rightly deserved such an honor.

Betty (Joe) Spindel who turns in more money by giving bridge lessons than any other single donor (I am speaking of one who gives most of her time and energy) came in first in the recent Community Center Bridge Club play. Her partner was Barbara Deer.

Sophie Katzman, out of the hospital and wants to thank all you wonderful people for the get well cards, good wishes, plants, flowers, etc.
