Analysis of

HELENE STADLER

This woman has literary abilities with talent in the writing field. She desires admiration and wants to be liked. She is careful in the use of her possessions and may exaggerate due to her vivid imagination. Graceful, she has a nice sense of humor with lots of drive and initiative. She is secretive and aggressive and could be antagonistic. She likes variety and is impatient with unimportant details, hates fuss and bother, she likes to get everything finished as soon as possible. With a likeable nature she also has a logical mind and is usually well organized. She has a persistent streak and lots of enthusiasm for the things which hold her interest. She is probably a wonderful friend and good company, but she should learn to relax and slow down because she doesn't realize that her friends can't always move as fast as she does. She may be too demanding in her expectations from those to whom she is closest.

Political Hopefuls Hammes Tosses Hat Into Race 'Arena'

Jack Hammes, a 13-year resident of Las Vegas and president of the Riviera Hotel Employees Foundation, has announced his candidacy for state assemblyman on the Democratic ticket.

Hammes is a native of Philadelphia who attended the Wharton School of Finance, majoring in business administration and political science. He also attended the Government Administration College in Washington, D.C., and conducted a study of the tax structure of the eastern states.

During World War II the candidate served in the Adjutant General's Office of the regular Army and was awarded the Distinguished Medal of Honor along with minor commendations.

Hammes is president-elect of the Nevada Rehabilitation Association, and an active member of the American Legion, the Optimists, the Central Democratic Committee and the Clark County Association for Retarded Children.

His campaign will place special emphasis on a stable tax program, tougher securities law against phony stock sales, schools, and highway safety.

Re-Files for Mines Post

Mervin J. Gallagher filed for re-election to the office of State Inspector of Mines on the Democratic ticket. Appropriately enough Mr. Gallagher paid his filing fee with One Hundred silver dollars.

Gallagher, 54, was first elected State Inspector of Mines in 1950.

Born and reared in Virginia City, Nevada, Gallagher graduated from the local schools there and attended St. Ingatious College in San Francisco for two years. He then returned to the Comstock to engage in mining. Appointed a Deputy State Mine Inspector in 1942 he served in that capacity for four years. In 1946, and again in 1948, he was elected by the people of Storey County to represent them in the Assembly of the State Legislature. Mr. Gallagher is married to the former Clarisse Young of Virginia City and they are the parents of three daughters.

Mr. Gallagher stated "If elected, I assure you I shall continue to vigorously direct my efforts toward an efficient administration of the duties and functions of the office of Inspector of Mines and for the best interests of the people of the State of Nevada. I shall as always, endeavor to further the mind industry in the State and to aid Nevada prospectors in every possible way."
