"Fears Arab Boycott" ADL ACCUSES COCA-COLA "Business Considerations" COMPANY REPLIES

(LOCAL COCA-COLA DISTRIBUTOR AL McRAE, WHEN INFORMED BY THE LAS VEGAS ISRAELITE OF THE ACCUSATIONS MADE BY THE ADL, SAID THERE MUST BE A MISUNDERSTANDING BECAUSE THERE ARE VERY MANY JEWISH STOCKHOLDERS IN COCA-COLA.)

NEW YORK (WNS) A claim by the Coca-Cola Company that its refusal to sell its product to Israel stemmed from considerations other than yielding to Arab boycott threats was challenged here by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith in a statement which said that the company refused to grant a franchise to an Israeli firm solely because of "political considerations."

The Company claimed that denial of a franchise to Israel was the result of a "business judgment" to the effect that such an arrangement would not be profitable. However, informed sources took note

NEW YORK (WNS) The Coca-Cola Export Corporation, smarting under allegations by the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith that it denied a franchise of its produce to a firm in Israel because of boycott threats by the Arab League, declared in a statement by its board president, James A. Farley, that the charge was unfounded and that the company in its denial of the franchise was guided purely by business considerations.

Calling the charges "Completely unfair and unfounded," Mr. Farley, a prominent New Yorker who served as Postmaster General of the United States under the Roosevelt Administration, said

JWV Installation Apr. 27, at Aladdin

An elaborate program is being planned for the Installation Dinner of Jewish War Veterans, Post 711, Wednesday, April 27 at the Aladdin Hotel, commencing with a cocktail reception at 6:30 p.m.

Mitch Bell, newly elected commander, will be installed by past commander Art

New Men's Club Officers

Ivan Eisenberg was elected president of the Men's Club for the ensuing year, on a slate that swept in Mike Katz as 1st vice president; Art Marshall as 2nd vice president; Marty Honig as treasurer; Hal Tuckman as corresponding secretary; Sid Peilte as recording secretary; Paul Eisenberg as financial secretary and Lou Lefkowitz as Sgt. at Arms.

Trustees named were Scotty Ferer, Harry Herzog and Irv Fields.

Getting rid of some of the dead wood as directors, the new board selected was Dr. Fred Ehrlich, Morry Roseman, Ben Marcus, Joe Moss, David Canter, Ray Hamberg, Bud Shiffman, Herman Greenberg, Harry Levy and Gill Blonsley.

It was accurately reported by Herzog there was $53,214.65 in his name for the club in five separate banks. Other reports stated there was "around" $2,800 left in a fund that paid all the bills so far for building of six new Hebrew classrooms. It was accurately reported there was $1,182.04 in the regular account and another $6,000 in a Savings and Loan account.

Friedland.

A memorial tribute to Mrs. Harry Sobel will be delivered by Sid Kaye, past commander.

Charles Kandel, who supports the Charles Kandel Scholarship Fund, and Al Cosky, chairman of the scholarship committee, will present four scholarship awards to deserving youngsters.

Comedy star Jackie Mason will headline the entertainment program.

Past commanders Dan Goldfarb and Herb Tobman will participate in the ceremonies.

Other officers to be installed are: Cal Leidner as Senior Vice Commander; Don Feldman as Jr. Vice Commander; Dave Sklar as Adjutant; Nat Blumberg as Chaplain; Bill Mirin as Judge Advocate; Irving Portnay as Quartermaster; and Sam Dvorak as Officer of the Day.

For full information and for ticket reservations, contact outgoing commander Irv Waller at 870-2397 or dinner chairman Irving Portnay at 382-4245. Tickets, of course will be available at the door. SEE YOU THERE.

Ray Charles Concert at N.S.U. Tonight, Apr. 22

by Tina Werner

The Confederated Students of Nevada Southern will sponsor a Ray Charles concert on April 22, 8 to 11:30 p.m., in the NSU gym.

The concert also will feature the Raelets and Charles band. The blind recording star will play and sing more than 20 of his hits, including "Georgia," "What'd I Say," "You Are My Sunshine," "Born to Lose" and "I Can't Stop Loving You."

Born in Albany Ga. 25 years ago Charles was blinded at the age of six. He was then sent to St. Augustine, Fla. to a school for the blind, where he remained until he was 15. Both his parents died that year and he left school to "make it" on his own.

Using the musical knowledge he had acquired at school, he landed jobs in Florida, playing with a variety of bands. Within two years his reputation had

DUE AT NSU — The Confederated Students of Nevada Southern will present in concert one night only the genius of Ray Charles, Friday April 22, at 8 p.m. in the Nevada Southern gym.

Claudia Gold Bat Mitzvah

CLAUDIA

Claudia Gold, daughter of Rabbi and Mrs. Aaron A. Gold will celebrate her Bat Mitzvah Friday night, April 22nd at 8:30 P.M., at Temple Beth Shalom. Claudia is a student of the Temple's Religious School and prior to coming to Las Vegas two years ago, graduated from the Solomon Schechter Day School of Philadelphia.

Claudia will chant portions of the service and the Haftorah. In attendance will be Claudia's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Dora Stein, as well as many leading dignitaries.

An Oneg Shabbat refreshment period will be hosted after the services by Claudia's parents.

NEW YORK (WNS) Criminal Court Judge Neal P. Bottigleiri ruled here after a hearing that George Lincoln Rockwell, notorious anti-Semite and founder of the American Nazi Party, must stand trial on May 16 for an act of disorderly conduct he committed in 1960.

At that time, he shouted in public that 80% of American Jews are Communists and traitors and should be bagged and exterminated."
