Camp Troy

Camp Troy, a popular prestige camp for Las Vegans who want their sons, ages 7 to 14, to have the finest accommodations, is a sports oriented camp adjacent to Lake Arrowhead, approximately two hours from Los Angeles.

With every day planned for fun, each counselor assigned to five boys, creates independence in the individual camper, who learns to live and conform with the other boys.

According to Fred Rutberg, camp director, who visited Las Vegas for a reunion prior to the 1966 summer season, among the campers in previous years were Brian and Danny Greenspun; Lanny Irwin; Mickey Lansburgh; Jeff Roen; Steve, Andrew and Alan Molasky; Gary Van; Marc Goldberg; Mike Engler; Scott Benedict; Mitchell Posin; David Rosen and Jordan Fields.

For full information contact Rutberg at 4711 Petit Ave., Encino, Calif., or call 784-2110.
