Reva Schwartz

(Reva's vacationing in New York so here's a few fill-ins from the rest of the staff--JT)

This writing Reva's column reminds of the days we were covering night clubs and vaudeville for Billboard. We were the first to review the brand new Jerry Lewis-Dean Martin act at Loew's State. Naturally, we raved, because Dean reminded of Perry Como's voice and non-chalance, and a nervous Jerry had sat at our table in Lindy's the evening prior.

Guess no one's reading this column, because didn't a beep of comment about a bloop in last week. On the Jac Hein item, we'd said he was director of the Major Bowes Amateur Hour, which is certainly giving away our age - and maybe that's why none of you fine lady readers protested. Of course, we meant the Ted Mack TV Amateur Hour. Again, we repeat, Jac, an old family friend who's directed the "Tonight" and the "Today" shows for years, passed thru Las Vegas and had to call to tell how much he enjoys the Israelite. So there's the "in" for any hopefuls for a theatrical career--the Ted Mack Amateur Hour.

Frank Quinn, our old time buddy and movie critic for the defunct N.Y. Mirror, writes from Miami Beach and offers to fill space in this paper with Florida copy. Likes the Israelite and believes lots of Vegans would appreciate news from the Everglades. We think so too, so send it on Frank. Certainly all of our many Florida subscribers will be thrilled. Meanwhile, the best of everything to you and yours,

Frank, from Bea and me.

Mitch Bell, Commander of Jewish War Veterans, Las Vegas Post 711, takes off Aug. 6 for annual naval cruise, part of his duty as Naval Reserve Seabea. He'll be accompanied by Cdr. Ray T. Knillans, who teaches in Clark County School District. Mitch is Child Welfare Supervisor for the County Welfare Board. Both have participated in the Naval Reserve for many years and invite others to join. Good pay and retirement benefits compensate for active participation. Get info at U.S. Naval Reserve Training Center.

Dave Sklar, adjutant of JWV, tells us about the Las Vegas Post coordinating with Board of Directors of Temple Beth Shalom for a flagpole donated by the Post on front lawn of the Temple. It will be a 40-60 footer. Sen. Cannon will help in obtaining an American flag that has flown over the nation's capitol in D.C. The Nevada State emblem will grace the Temple frontage, courtesy of Gov. Grant Sawyer. Sounds swell. Hope it's there in time for the High Holidays.
