MORE LETTERS

Dear Sirs:

I am a subscriber to your wonderful and enjoyable newspaper.

It is a pleasure to read about my former neighbors, and the continued growth of my former home.

About six weeks ago, in one of your issues to me, you had a story and picture about my former boss, Sammy Cohen of the Santa Anita Race Book.

It was a very humane story about a great guy and a very charitable one, not only to youngster organizations, but also to anyone in need.

After being in his employ for 13 months, I would like to pay this tribute to him:

"In all the years of working in gambling industry in Vegas and my own home town of Detroit, Sammy Cohen was the finest boss it has been my pleasure to have. He is the tops."

Yours truly,
Samuel Dresser

Dear Jack:

My deep and everlasting gratitude and appreciation to you for the wonderful coverage you gave me in the Israelite on the announcement of my intention to re-file for District Judge. I am grateful for this and the many previous considerations which you have extended to me through the years.

My warmest personal regards to you.

Sincerely,
John C. Mowbray

Dear Mr. Tell:

Thank you for calling and bringing Mrs. Tell with you to visit the Poodle Parlor. Also, thank you for a copy of The Israelite with our new Ad. It looks very nice.

I enjoy reading The Israelite each week and it is very well done, most interesting and informative.

During the past week I have had several calls from ladies who mentioned they had seen our Ad in your paper.

My husband has recommended that I ask you about running a full page Ad on one or two occasions when you may have the space.

Congratulations on your fine newspaper and every good wish for continued success, the paper is a credit not only to you, but to the city of Las Vegas.

Yours sincerely,
THE POODLE PARLOR
Toni Armstrong.

Thanks a million, Jack.

Sincerely,
Tommy Vig
