 DON'T MISS THIS PICNIC

Our Temple president Jack Entratter, elated over the many letters he is receiving from Jewish leaders all over the world, who are reading the Israelite, thanks to Hotel Sahara. One of Jack's cousins, a Washington D.C. Rabbi, said some awfully nice things about our Jewish community and the Israelite.

Don't let that "Miss" part of Miss Bobbie's cause any eye lifting when you note the pregnant condition of the lovely lady who runs the Miss Bobbie's shop for teenagers on No. 4th. It's been a haven for youngsters since "Miss" Bobbie herself, was a teenager.

Pat Ginn about to realize a hope of a lifetime. His mother and two sisters due to arrive anytime now from Hong Kong. What a reunion. Between preparing for his most loved kin, and readying his new Bar-B-Que spot in Sahara Shopping Center, Pat is busier than a one armed paper hanger. Pat's Bar-B-Que Kitchen will be a delight when it opens about the 20th. In addition to being spotlessly clean, like Pat's Chinese Kitchen in Commercial Center, the new restaurant will be a gourmet's haven with special Chinese sauces and his own recipes for cole slaw and

 The chap responsible for the four gorgeous fountains at the entrance to Caesars Palace, is practically a nightly diner at the Four Fountains restaurant at the bend of the Strip, just below the Sands. Just loves the authentic Italian dishes.

Ced Olson, manager of the upcoming JC Clark County Fair, says this one, Sept. 21-25, will be the all-time topper. It will feature the Festival of Nations. At the Convention Center, of course.

Temple Beth Shalom Annual Memorial Book, in which beloved departed dear ones, may be honored with a meaningful permanent memento, is being prepared for press. There is no standard contribution necessary to have a name included. The amount of the donation, large or small, is entirely at your own discretion. However, Temple President Jack Entratter asks that names be received on or before Thursday, Sept. 1.

The first meeting for the Temple Mixed Doubles Bowling League will be held Sunday, Aug. 21, 7 p.m. at West Hills Lanes. For further info call Sheila Shapiro at 870-1562, Madelyne Posin at 382-9860 or Ruth Speiser at 735-4915.

JCSC LUAU Aug. 27

Long letter from Reva with a full report on N.Y., from two men being shot on a corner of the street where she's staying, to Leonard Bernstein and the N.Y. Philharmonic, to an exciting group called weight watchers, who read the L.V. Israelite. But we'll wait until she returns to fill you in on details. It can't be too long now, with the air strike almost at an end, we hope, we hope.

The Jewish Center Social Club has planned a luau at the Jungle Club on Paradise Road. It will take place on August 27th at 8:00 p.m. The evening will include a generous dinner, entertainment, and dancing.

The cost for this evening of fun is $5.00 per person for members and $7.00 for non-members. People may join the club now for the low cost of $2.50 per person per year. For further information or to make reservations call or write Adrienne Blatt; 5120 Doe St., Las Vegas; 870-3688.
