

LETTERS

Gentlemen:

Enjoy your paper.

Rabbi Alex J. Goldman
(Stanford, Conn.)

Dear Editor:

Thank you for your kindness in sending me complimentary copies of the Las Vegas Israelite.

I find your paper very interesting.

Best wishes to your and your community for a healthy and happy New Year.

Rabbi Jacob Freedman
(Hyde Park, Mass.)

Dear Mr. Tell:

On behalf of Hearts of Hope Guild I hasten to make this the first of my letters of appreciation to the many organizations and individuals without whose assistance our Fashions International Luncheon could not have succeeded.

Since the Las Vegas Israelite enjoys such a wide circulation, would you please make known our thanks to B'nai B'rith, Hadassah, Sisterhood and Jewish War Veterans who so graciously donated their services as hostesses and assisted in the sale of raffle tickets.

Mr. Tell, it is difficult to find words to express our heartfelt thanks to you and your paper for the wonderful publicity given us without which we would surely have failed to reach so many people who attended, thus making our luncheon not only a social, but a definite financial success.

Most sincerely yours,

Regina Whalen, Chairman,
Annette Tabic, Co-Chairman,
Hearts of Hope Guild

Las Vegas Israelite:

Many thanks for sending me your lively weekly.

Dr. H. J. Wilner

(Dir. B. B. Hillel Found.
at West Virginia U.)

Dear Bea and Jack,

We appreciate your efforts on behalf of our friend, Judge William P. Compton.

Cordially,

Lee Schwartz
(Mrs. Jerome H. Schwartz)

Dear Mr. Tell,

On the behalf of the Las Vegas B'nai B'rith Girls I would like to thank you for your generous participation in the judging of our annual creativity contest. Because of the success of this, an added enthusiasm and drive could really be "felt" on the part of the delegations.

The winning entrie or entrant will automatically go to District Convention. This convention will begin on June 26 and will be held in Palm Springs, California.

I hope that if our organization can at any time in the future assist you in some manner you will feel free to call upon us.

Thank you again.

Sincerely yours,
Candy Margulies
President - Las Vegas
BBG

Dear Jack:

Your excellent coverage of our Veterans Day Program held in conjunction with Friday night Services at Temple Beth Shalom on November 11th, was well-done and quite instrumental, I am sure, for the large audience in attendance.

In the past you have rendered this Post tremendous public service in conveying to the public our various programs and events.

The community of Las Vegas appreciates our efforts and objectives and the Jewish War Veteran, whether he be affiliated with this Post or not, can be proud of our accomplishments. We are in the planning stages of sponsoring better and bigger events, not only beneficial to the individual who served on military duty, but the general public as well. Your continued personal energy and publication of our future programs will likewise be very very gratifying.

The presence of Lt. Governor Ed Fike and Senator Chic Hecht at the Friday Night Veterans Day Services was also very stirring and satisfying. The fact these two newly elected top state officials took time out to participate with us and personally thank all those present for their help, is surely a reflection that they care and will help mold a better Nevada.

Through your media, I also want to thank Rabbi Aaron Gold, Cantor Joseph Kohn, Mrs. Vivian Nathanson, President of our Auxiliary and, of course, all of the members of Post 711 personally for their able assistance and support in our honor to Post delivery on the Viet Nam struggle and the fact the entire JWV organization supports President Johnson's policy on this problem.

Again Jack, many thanks for our fine relationship and harmony in our aims to solidify the veteran and the Las Vegas Community.

With warm personal regards.

Sincerely,
Mitchell Ball
Commander, Post 711
Jewish War Veterans

Dear Tell Family:

Thank you so very much for the two Biographies you did on me and for naming me the outstanding Jewish Woman of the year.

I sincerely appreciate all you have done for me.

Hope your Las Vegas Israelite continues for many many years -- good health, much noches and long long life to you and yours.

Fondly,
Eileen Brookman

Dear Jack and Bea:

I would like to thank you for all of the help you gave to me during my campaign.

I sincerely appreciated all that you did.

Sincerely,
Assemblyman-elect
Eileen Brookman

Temple officers and Board members. Their yearly calendars are filled with events of all kinds, particularly on the social level, and their efforts have raised thousands and thousands of dollars over the years for the support and maintenance of the Temple and its religious school.

To mention only a few of their accomplishments:

Our Men's Club in the past two years turned over to the Congregation enough money to pay for the entire new school building and all its furnishings, as well as for the recent work of remodeling our library and all our staff offices to allow for the growth which has taken place in our Temple. During the High Holidays each year they willingly respond to the job of acting as ushers.

The Sisterhood, in addition to turning over sizeable amounts of money to the Temple each year, is solely responsible for financing the Oneg Shabbat refreshment periods every Friday evening. It supplies milk and cookies daily to the children attending religious school. It manages and takes charge of our kitchen and all its necessary equipment. Recently they made up forty new, beautiful robes for our children's choir. One of their annual events on cultural living is the Book Fair, into which they pour many hours of devoted work.

The accomplishments of our Men's Club and Sisterhood are truly too numerous to mention. Suffice to say, as President of the Temple, it is a good feeling to know that we are blessed with so many nice people, working harmoniously and devotedly for the welfare of the Temple.

Dear Jack Tell, Editor L.V. Israelite:

Have been wanting to tell you ever since I am honored with the L.V.I. how much I enjoy reading it. In fact I always deposit the copy at our Temple Library, where people enjoy reading it. They, at least many of them, never thought in terms of an active Jewish community and congregation in L.V. (good missionary work.)

Sincerely,
Rabbi Samuel Schwartz,
D.D.
(Oak Park, Ill.)

Dear Jack:

We want you to know how much we appreciate the wonderful cooperation of the press in Southern Nevada and you, personally, do so much to make events like the Jaycee County Fair successful.

Very truly yours,
Ced. Olson
Manager

Dear Mr. Tell:

May I thank you very much for allowing us to be on television last Sunday night. It was a tremendous plug for our "Cancer Open Forum".

Sincerely yours,
Joe Smith
Executive Dir., A.C.S.
Clark County Unit

ple. They are our towers of strength and never hesitate to respond to the call. The force that motivates this type of love and devotion for the Temple is a mystery. But while it is an intangible spirit, I am thankful it exists and that we are the proud possessors of these two fine groups. If you aren't already a member, you ought to join soon. You'll be glad you did. The spirit is catching and heartwarming.
