Mazel Tov to the latest newlyweds who were married at our temple last Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Salinger. She is the daughter of our own columnist, Percy Villa. Much happiness to the young couple who will live in Carbondale, Ill., until Jerry gets his masters degree.

The holiday season is always a happy one, bringing into town our own youngsters from schools across the country. Five of them appeared on Sisterhood's Youth Symposium, "What Judaism Means to Me", and all who attended knew that tho' inter-dating is so prevalent, we needn't have to worry about the future of our faith. Those on the panel, with Dr. Leonard Gang presiding, were Bob Kravitz, Bryan Greenspun, Marty Wilner, Karen Goldstein and Elaine Pink.

Other students visiting home are Tobe Gleeman, Jerry Rudiak, Caryn Berger, Dale Sachs, Joe Armell, Matt Shlisky, and Joel Liebovitz.

Dot and Hal Tuchman and their children are happy to see Gramma Ethel Brown, who's in to see them from Panorama City.

Youngest member of Hadassah, is four month old Susanne Truman. Her grandpa, Sherlock Feldman, attended the beautiful and exclusive Life Membership party with Sara, and was so impressed with the work being done at the new Kidney-Transplant Unit at the Hadassah Hospital. To show his own faith and appreciation little Nancy was pledged as a Life Member too.

Welcome newcomers Claire and Jan Graffman of Sydney, Australia. Claire is a Sabra, having been born in Israel, but migrated at the age of 10, to the "down-under" country. They love it here! Martha Goldstein, (Dave's mother) has made Vegas her home too, after residing in Indianapolis. Bertha and Julius Medway, who live at Paradise Spa are new arrivals too, having lived in Ellay the better part of their lives.

Will Schwartz, who had back surgery last week, also at St. Vincent's Hospital, is making some progress, and sure would be happy with a few cheery notes from his friends.

Hope you didn't miss the Cantorial Concert on the 21st. It was so lovely. This was the first time that the Western States Convention was held in our city, and from all indications, every delegate was very pleased with all arrangements and our hospitality.

We see Anne Blumenthal is back again after a most pleasant stay with her sister in Switzerland.

Hear that Murray Kachad has been down with pneumonia at Sunrise Hospital. Get well soon, Murray. And all of us had better watch this crazy weather.

Guess who were Xmas babies? Jeri Snyder and Anne Ukeiley! Jeri took off after a busy season, to spend time with her son Walter in West Hollywood, and then on to Palm Springs. Happy Birthday too, to Etta Harmell, who will be lighting up her cake New Year's eve.

Phyllis Zimmerman became the bride of Paul Hart, of Dallas, Texas, in a charming ceremony at our Temple on the 19th. To the happy pair and their parents, of whom Charles and Sarah Zimmerman are local, our very best wishes.

The handsome couple celebrating their ninth anniversary are Susan and Herb Frey. All month long??

SO SORRY!
It was inadvertently stated in the photo caption of the Book Fair story that guest speaker, Beulah Roth was the sister of Leonard Levinson, who was guest speaker at a former Book Fair. Mrs. Roth is the sister of Leonard Spiegelgass, the noted playwright, who was guest speaker last year. The brother-sister combination, who have achieved top recognition in the literary world, is a tribute to thier mother, Mrs. Rebecca Spiegelgass, 83, who attended this year's event.

The Morris Glaziers had as their house guest, Rosalind Nachenberg, of California. Of course Faye brought her to Hadassah's most interesting meeting which covered reports on their Education Seminar in Pasadena and the highlights of Hadassah's delegation which went on a mission to Russia.

Congratulations to the latest newly-weds in the community -- Phyllis Zimmerman became the wife of Paul Hart, of Dallas, Texas last Sunday at our Temple. To the beaming parents, Sarah and Charles Zimmerman and to the young couple, only the best!

Goldye Perlove off to spend the new year's hang-over with her children in West Hollywood, Etta Harmell and son Harold head that way too, to visit with their little ones.

Everyone's coming and going at this time of the year, and we're always happy to have our children in for the school holidays. Some of the "in generation" you see around town are: Bob Kravitz and Joel Liebovitz, both in from Denver; Matt Shlisky, in from US Army School of Finance in Indianapolis; Elaine Pink, from Arizona, Bryan Greenspun, from Georgetown, Md., and Marty

Wilner from U.C.L.A.
