

TEL AVIV (WNS) A sixth Israeli suspect has been arrested by the police in the bizarre plot involving two Americans who were arrested earlier in the United States on charges of planning to destroy a bridge in Zambia with a view to influencing world copper prices.

NEW YORK (WNS) A radio commercial for Ballantine beer has been withdrawn after a protest by the American Jewish Congress, claiming that it was objectionable in character. The gimmick in the commercial was a story by the announcer, George Kirby, about Jewish players on a football team who called signals in Yiddish in order to deceive their opponents, the Notre Dame team. The story ended with a punch line that their plot fell flat when one of the Notre Dame players said he too was a Jew and understood Yiddish.

Killed 150,000
HAGAN (WNS) Karl Frenzl, one of seven defendants convicted here on charges of complicity in the mass murder of Jews in the notorious Sobiror camp in Poland was sentenced to life while the rest of the defendants were given terms. A former SS officer, Frenzl was found guilty by the court of having participated in the killing of 150,000 Jewish inmates in the camp.
