

SHOWCASE OF THE STARS ★

He is a fairly late riser (when is that?) he asks when not working. On working days, he brews his own coffee while shaving, then dashes to the office.

His hobbies include playing the banjo, running, shooting, water skiing and the study of unidentified flying objects. The latter hobby he has pursued for 20 years frequently giving talks on UFO from his large files.

A handball player for 16 years, Romero has won numerous Las Vegas and Nevada state doubles championships and was the Las Vegas singles champion in 1965.

He is a member of the Kiwanis Club and Elks.

He is loved and respected by his co-workers and the many hundreds employed at the Sahara Hotel.

Romero, a non-smoker, frequently sends his smoking friends literature advising them to quit. He copies anti-smoking newspaper and magazine articles to use in his unique "crusade."

He is punctual to the minute, but never gets annoyed if his friends are a bit tardy.

He is a hard worker, thorough and complete. He manages to make friends in and out of the hotel every day. ("It costs so little to be nice to people.")

He listens to advice about himself and his work. Then he makes his own final decisions.

John says his philosophy can be oversimplified as: "I live for today, having learnt from the past for tomorrow."

John Romero is happily married to the attractive Denise and has three good looking and healthy children: John Jr., Dana and Andrea. When John and Denise are at home they are King and they have many friends, and we're proud to be among them.
