Thanks, Jack, for pinching for me while I was on an unexpected "vacation" for 12 days at SNMH. Seems like the slopes were too slippery for this go-go correspondent and now I have to substitute crutches for skis for a while. My sincerest thanks to so many good friends who were right there pitching in with every good wish, offers of help, their many cards, appreciated visits, and even a delicious gourmet meal prepared and sent up by Muriel Stevens!

Al David was my "neighbor" a few doors down, if for some tests and I surely hope that he gets well soon. One gal must get mention, for she is indeed an "angel of mercy". I refer to Marie Newman, who twice weekly visits everyone of our faith who is hospitalized, bringing along her sunny disposition and cheerful nature. Truly, she performs a great mitzvah which can only be measured by those who are confined.

The latest project of the JWV will be the erection of a 40 foot flagpole on our temple grounds. Mitchell Bell, Commander of the post has arranged for the local USN Seabee unit to assist with the actual work. The U.S. and State Flags will be flown. Let's help make it soon.

Rose Rich is off to Chicago to attend the wedding of her brother, and then she'll brave the Detroit weather for kicks.

Our Own Rabbi Gold To Chair Annual Convention

The crucial problems of the adolescent and the new morality; Jewish family life and the relationships between husband and wife, -- parents and children; and the serious rise in intermarriage will be given primary consideration at the Annual Convention of the Pacific Southwest Branch of the Rabbinical Assembly to be held at the El Mirador Hotel in Palm Springs, January 30-February 2, according to Dr. Max Vorspan, Chairman of the Program Committee and Provost of the University of Judaism in Los Angeles, the West coast school of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America. The Assembly comprises the spiritual leaders from more than 50 regional synagogues of the United Synagogue of America.

ccessful and enjoyable event, celebrated at the Temple on the 15th. The musical, "Donor On The Roof" was delightful and the cast deserves special commendation... Cantor Joseph Kohn, Reggie Sickle, Maxine Quinn, Pauline Shlisky and Blanche Stein were those who performed and my own guy, Shelly Schwartz, accompanied on the piano.

Mazel tov to Michael Mushkin who made his mom and dad, Mae and Larry, very proud of him when he was Bar Mitzvah last week.

So sorry to learn of the death in Philadelphia of Morry Steven's father at the end of November. Many people in town knew Simon Sussan well and will miss him too.

Rabbi Bert A. Woythaler, President of the Regional Rabbinical Assembly, states that in keeping with the convention theme "The Character of Jewish Family Life in Our Congregations", the Rabbis will evaluate the problems and present their recommendations for an immediate course of action.

The Convention will be chaired by Rabbi Aaron S. Gold of Temple Beth Shalom in Las Vegas, Nevada. Rabbi Gold is a graduate of the Teachers College of Colum-

A friend of a friend, passing through town, invited Sid Hudson to dinner at the Sahara. The meal consisted of hard boiled eggs and sardines in paper plates. The visitor was Rabbi Aaron Paperman of Teshiva College, Wickliffe, Ohio., who observed strict dietary laws. This gave the two plenty of time for conversation, and Sid to his delight found the Rabbi had been educated in Kevi, Russia, Sid's birthplace. Sid enjoyed the visit so much, he accompanied the Rabbi on to Los Angeles, where they supped at a Kosher restaurant. Incidentally, Sid reports the Rabbi was very much impressed with the treatment he received at the Sahara.
