The Barney Samuels are happily engaged in showing the town to Edith's brother Stanley Levinson, who is Planner for the Board of Education in Long Beach, Calif. With him is a group of eleven educators here on a seminar, Mrs. Levinson, and an exchange high school student from Sweden who lives with them.

Muriel Stevens is home after a month of beach-combing in Hawaii and now son Bruce left to report for Navy duty in San Diego.

If you missed popular attorney Bob Cohen, he was at the bedside of his sister Lillian Medalie of Waverly, N. Y. who successfully underwent serious surgery.

Mace Sickle is back in circulation again after being bedded down with pneumonia.

The Max Ukeileys are kvelling with the news that daughter Nadine who attends Arizona State, came up with an A average and made the Dean's List.

A remote and unspoiled spot in Mexico so enchanted Gert and Dave Katzman that they cancelled the rest of their sightseeing plans south of the border and just luxuriated in the simple grace of just doing nothing. They won't disclose their idyllic location, but had to cut their stay short to meet son Seth who is home on mid-semester break from San Jose State.

If you watched "Dream Girl" of TV last week, you'd have recognized one of the first place winners to be the attractive Susan Ratner, daughter of Anne and Heidan.

And if you want to be a Dream Girl but have a weight problem, come to Weight Watchers and be on your way! You may join any Tuesday at 1 pm, suite 1112 at Hotel Thunderbird. If you want to be slim, not just for now but for always, this is for you!

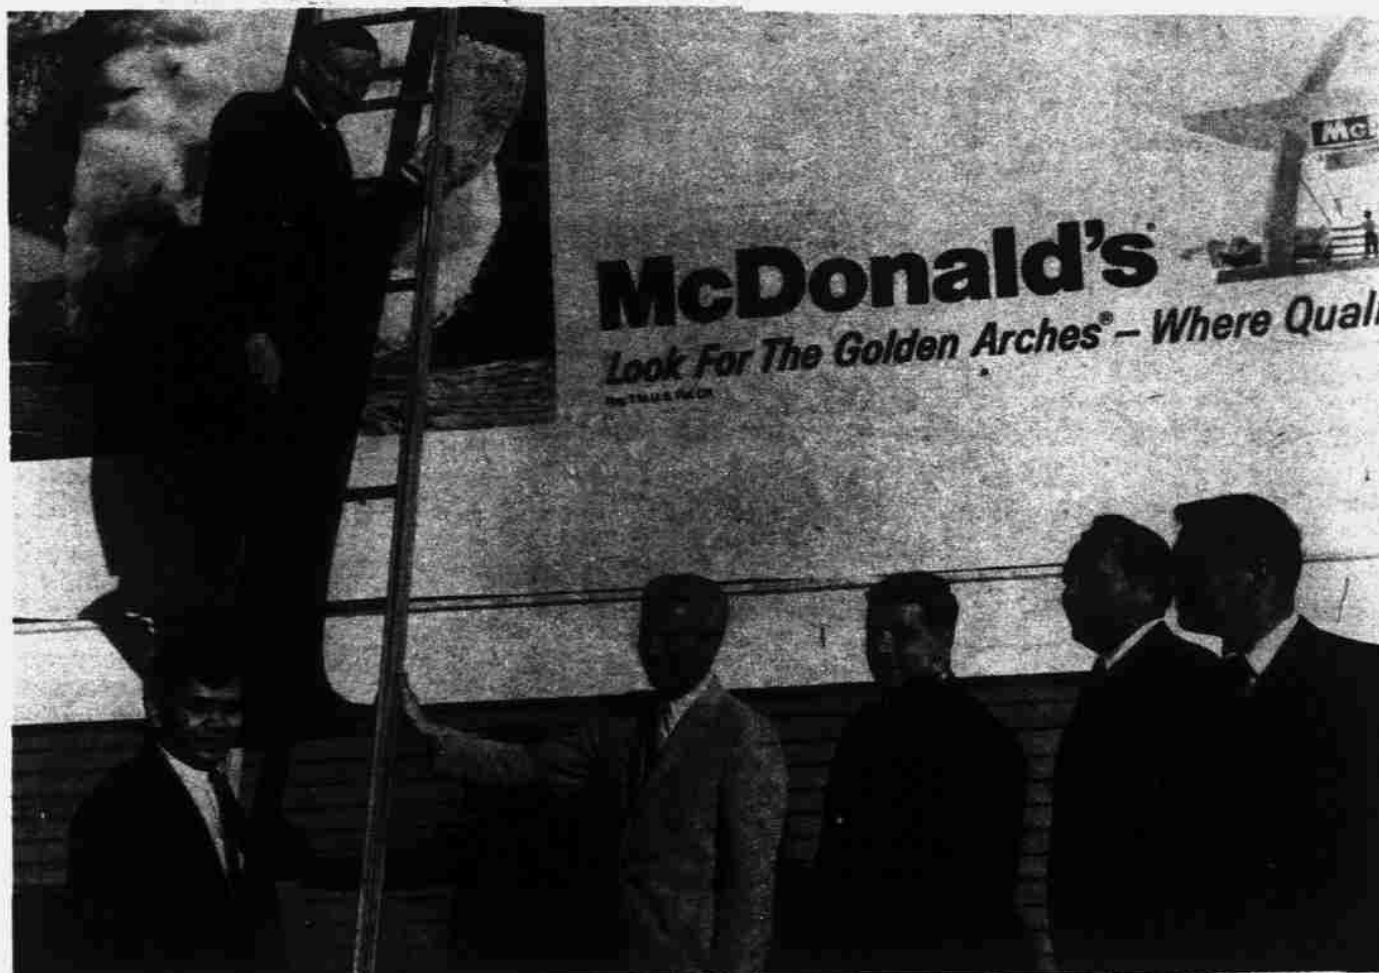

Visiting from Manhattan is

Sandy Lewis, daughter of Ruth Rabin. With the serious air pollution there and a bad case of asthma accompanying her first pregnancy, Sandy is hoping to be feeling much better here. Sure hope so.

Another most welcome visitor from N.Y., by way of Sacramento, is by own sweet mother, Rose Feuer.

The community is shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Joe Shapiro on Feb. 6th. We had reported happy tidings of his being a new grandfather again, just last week. Our sincere condolences to Fay and their entire family.
